MEDIA GUIDE

THE STORY OF BEAR DOWN

University of Arizona Athletics' most enduring tradition is the slogan and battle cry, "Bear Down."

More than a casual piece of encouragement, the rally cry has roots over a century old, to the Roaring '20s, and pre-dates another venerated exhortation, "Win one for the Gipper," by two years.

In the fall of 1926, John Byrd "Button" Salmon was the newly installed student body president at the UA, a promising student and member of note of several of the school's honor societies. He also was a varsity quarterback, a baseball catcher and generally acclaimed popular campus figure. He embodied all-around.

In early October after the Wildcat varsity defeated the freshman squad in an annual match at the time, Salmon and several friends were returning from a visit to Phoenix, and an automobile crash north of Tucson near Florence left the young athlete critically injured.

Salmon, then 22, lost his battle and died the morning of Oct. 18. A memorial service was held on campus that week, drawing a reported thousand mourners, and a line of cars stretched miles to his burial plot.

The coach at the time, J.F. "Pop" McKale, had visited Salmon in the hospital regularly before his death, and later told the squad the young athlete's last message to his teammates was, "Tell them... tell the team to bear down."

It's unclear whether McKale invoked the phrase to the team before one of several games that year, a contest in Las Cruces against New Mexico A&M (NMSU) that same week, or two weeks later before a game against New Mexico in Tucson. UA won both.

But when word spread, the UA student body drew to the phrase swiftly, and among other uses painted the slogan on the roof of the University gymnasium shortly thereafter, known since as Bear Down Gym. An airplane view of that huge-lettered phrase caused eventual long-time band director Jack K. Lee to write the song, "Bear Down, Arizona" during his application for the UA band job. The song, and Douglas Holsclaw's "Fight, Wildcats, Fight," are played throughout University of Arizona sporting events, and from the campus belltower daily.

Originally located outside the McKale Memorial Center upon its dedication in 1986, the bronze bust memorial to John "Button" Salmon was relocated in 2013 to more visible quarters near the Lowell-Stevens Football Facility. The new location placed the bust closer to the stadium, representative of Salmon's participation in football. The bust faces southeast so that it may look across the former Kindall-Sancet baseball stadium and on to the current home of Arizona baseball, Hi Corbett Field, as well as Salmon's hometown of Bisbee.

As part of a new tradition established with the 2013 season, Arizona football players pass and touch the bust as a show of tribute as they complete the "Wildcat Walk" and enter the Lowell-Stevens Football Facility before every home game. The "Bear Down" rally cry also appears inside Arizona Stadium. Arizona's FieldTurf playing surface features "Bear Down" in ghost lettering behind the prominent block "A" logo at midfield.

In spring of 2008, a highway memorial honoring the Bear Down tradition was installed along State Route 79 near the site of the tragic crash at Florence.

With or without the pieces of bronze and marble, Bear Down as a phrase and song has been inexorably a part of UA athletics, woven into its fabric year after year, since October 1926. Since 2000, UA Athletics has awarded John Button Salmon Awards to 23 former coaches or administrators for exemplary leadership and service to the University, in honor of the tradition's namesake.

"Button" Salmon died generations ago but his message still echoes across every UA athletic venue, in every corner and through every building on campus, and in the thoughts of tens of thousands of Wildcat supporters past, present and future.

Arizona On Air

The Arizona IMG Sports Network, with Cumulus Broadcasting Company, uses KCUB 1290AM in Tucson as the flagship station for originating radio broadcasts, augmented by KCUB's 100,000-watt sister FM station, KHYT 107.5FM, in Southern Arizona.

Broadcasts of Arizona football games are led by Director of Broadcasting Brian Jeffries. The veteran play-by-play announcer has served as the voice of the Wildcats for football, basketball and baseball since Arizona's 1986 Aloha Bowl football appearance.

Since 2004, Jeffries has been joined by color analyst Lamont Lovett, a former UA running back. Dana Cooper rounds out the broadcast team as the sideline reporter, while Rob Joyce provides live scoreboard updates and highlights from other games around the country.

Additionally, IMG produces Spanish-language radio broadcasts for select football, men's basketball and women's basketball games. Francisco Romero provides the play-by-play commentary for the broadcasts, which are available online at www.arizonawildcats.com

In addition to the game broadcasts, the Arizona IMG Sports Network produces a weekly radio show with Kevin Sumlin. Fans are invited to view the show in person Monday nights at 7 p.m. at Brother John's Beer, Bourbon and BBQ located at 1801 N Stone Ave in Tucson.

Kevin Sumlin

Second Season at Arizona
12th Season as a Head Coach

Career Record: 91-50 (.645)

Arizona: 5-7 (.417)

Texas A&M (Six Seasons) : 51-26 (.662)

Houston (Four Seasons): 35-17 (.673)

Paul "Bear" Bryant Coach of the Year Finalist
2009 | 2011 | 2012

Kevin Sumlin, a three-time national Coach of the Year finalist, was named Arizona's 32nd head coach on Jan. 14, 2018. He was formally introduced at a press conference on Jan. 16.

Sumlin comes to Arizona after serving as the head football coach at Texas A&M University for six seasons (2012-17), compiling a 51-26 record including three bowl victories. He also served as the head coach at the University of Houston for four seasons (2008-11), amassing a 35-17 record. In his 11 seasons as a head coach, Sumlin has compiled an 91-50 record and his teams have played in bowl games in nine of those seasons.

During his time at Texas A&M, Sumlin averaged over eight victories per season and won at least seven games each year, while competing in what many believe to be the toughest division in college football, the SEC West. His 44 wins over his first five seasons in College Station marked the second-fastest coaching start in school history, behind R.C. Slocum's 49 wins from 1989-93. Sumlin was the first Aggie head coach to lead his first six teams to a bowl game, and Sumlin's teams improved the Aggies' school record streak of consecutive seasons with a bowl game appearance to nine. His three bowl victories are tied for the most in school history. In addition, Sumlin guided Johnny Manziel to a stellar freshman season that saw him throw for 3,419 yards and 24 TDs, while running for 1,181 yards and 19 TDs en route to the 2012 Heisman Trophy.

Despite his defensive background as a linebacker at Purdue in the mid-1980s, it's been his offenses that have been his calling card as a head coach. In Sumlin's six seasons in the SEC, his offenses led the conference in passing, scoring and total offense twice. His 2012 edition became the first to break the 7,000-yard plateau in total offense with 7,261 yards, and his 2013 unit was just a yard shy of the milestone. Texas A&M owns SEC season records for passing yards (4,593 in 2013), total yards and average total offense (7,261/558.5 in 2012) and first downs (357 in 2013).

In his 10 seasons as a head coach, Sumlin's offenses have averaged more than 400 yards of total offense every season, including more than 500 yards five times. His teams have scored more than 500 points five times, including an incredible 690 points in 2011.

Sumlin's record against non-conference teams ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 was a perfect 5-0 (wins over No. 22 Louisiana Tech and No. 11 Oklahoma in 2012, No. 22 Duke in 2013, No. 15 Arizona State in 2015 and No. 16 UCLA in 2016). His Aggies defeated at least one AP Top 25 opponent away from Kyle Field in each of his first five seasons, and his 12 victories over Top 25 teams rank among the most in college football.

Among those wins over ranked opponents were three road victories over teams ranked in the top 10 of the AP Poll -- 29-24 over No. 1 Alabama in 2012, 52-29 over No. 9 South Carolina in the 2014 season-opener and 41-38 over No. 3 Auburn in 2014. Sumlin is the only Aggie head coach to post more than two AP top 10 road wins.

The Aggies' success on the field coincided with the team's continued upward trend in the classroom. The Texas A&M football team's 2013-14 multi-year Academic Progress Rate of 974 was an all-time high for the school, and the 2014-15 APR was 967. The Aggies also finished the 2015-16 school year with an overall team GPA above 2.70 and had more than 30 players named to the Athletics Director Honor Roll (requires a 3.0 GPA or higher) both semesters.

Sumlin was hired at Texas A&M after a successful stint as head coach at the University of Houston. His final Cougar squad set a school record with 13 victories (12 prior to Sumlin's departure to Texas A&M) in 2011 and notched the program's highest finish in the Bowl Championship Series standings. He was named the Region 5 Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association that year and was one of five finalists for the AFCA's National Coach of the Year award. Sumlin guided the Cougars to berths in the 2011 Ticket Center Bowl and the 2008 and 2009 Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowls.

His final season in Houston was one of the finest in the history of the Cougar football program. Sumlin's Cougars raced through the regular season with a perfect 12-0 record before falling in the Conference-USA Championship to Southern Miss. The Cougars led the nation in passing, total and scoring offense and featured the nation's leader in passing and total offense, quarterback Case Keenum. UH set NCAA FBS team records for total offense and passing yards.

His lone team to not reach a bowl was in 2010. Houston entered the season with high expectations but injuries to their top two quarterbacks, including Keenum, contributed to a 5-7 campaign.

In 2009, Sumlin was a finalist for the Paul "Bear" Bryant National Coach of the Year Award after leading the Cougars to a 10-4 record, which included wins over No. 5 Oklahoma State in Stillwater, Okla., and BCS conference teams Texas Tech and Mississippi State. Statistically, UH led the nation in passing (433.7), total (563.4) and scoring offense (42.2). Houston also became just the third team in NCAA history to post a 5,000-yard passer and three 1,000-yard receivers in one season.

Taking over the reins of the UH program in December 2007, Sumlin guided the Cougars to an 8-5 record in 2008 and became the first UH coach in 28 years to lead his team to a bowl victory, as Houston topped Air Force 34-28 in the Armed Forces Bowl. He was one of only 10 first-year Football Bowl Subdivision coaches to guide his team to a bowl game and one of only six to win the bowl contest.

Sumlin went to Houston after seven seasons as an assistant coach and offensive coordinator in the Big 12. He spent five seasons at the University of Oklahoma under head coach Bob Stoops, where he served as both the co-offensive coordinator/wide receivers coach (2006-07) and special teams coordinator/tight ends coach (2003-05).

Before his arrival in Norman, Sumlin spent two seasons at Texas A&M under head coach R.C. Slocum, where he served as the assistant head coach, offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach for the Aggies (2001-2002).

During his previous stint in Aggieland, Sumlin coached several of the top receivers in school history, including Bethel Johnson, Terrence Murphy and Jamaar Taylor, who still rank in the top 10 in career catches and receiving yards.

Early in the 2002 season, Slocum promoted Sumlin to offensive play caller after the Aggie offense struggled in the first three games of the season. With Sumlin calling the plays, the Aggie offense flourished, averaging 33.0 points and 419 yards per game for the remainder of the season after posting just 16.0 points and 286 yards per game previously. A highlight of the season included a 30-26 win over top-ranked Oklahoma with the Aggies gaining 404 total yards to key the victory.

Sumlin's coaching career has also seen stops at his alma mater Purdue (1998-2001), Minnesota (1993-97) and Wyoming (1991-92).

Purdue's 1998 receivers set school records with 377 receptions for 4,208 yards and 43 touchdowns. The Boilermakers' Chris Daniels set a Big Ten record with 121 catches and recorded another Big Ten record with 21 receptions in one game.

In addition to Stoops and Slocum, Sumlin served as an assistant coach under Joe Tiller at Purdue and Wyoming, Jim Wacker at Minnesota, Glen Mason at Minnesota and Mike Price at Washington State.

Sumlin has coached in 16 bowl games, including all four traditional New Year's Day games.

A four-year letterman as a linebacker at Purdue from 1983-86, Sumlin finished his career as one of the top tacklers in Boilermaker history. He was named to Sports Illustrated's All-America walk-on list as a freshman after leading Purdue with 91 tackles.

He earned honorable mention All-Big Ten honors as a senior, while ranking fifth in the league with 114 tackles, and helped lead Purdue to the Peach Bowl.

The Indianapolis native graduated from Purdue in 1988 with a bachelor's degree in both criminology and criminal justice. Sumlin has four children: daughters Courtney and Shelby, and sons Jackson and Joey.

NOEL MAZZONE

Offensive Coordinator/QBs

Year at Arizona: 2nd

Years in Coaching: 40th

One of the nation's most innovative, experienced and accomplished offensive coordinators, Noel Mazzone is in his second season at Arizona. He arrived in Tucson following two years as offensive coordinator for Kevin Sumlin at Texas A&M. The pair first coached together in the early 1990s on the staff of the late Jim Wacker at Minnesota.

In his first season at Arizona, Mazzone's offense led the Pac-12 in rushing at 202.4 yards per game. The Wildcats were third in scoring offense at 31.3 points per game.

Prior to Texas A&M, Mazzone directed UCLA's offense for four seasons, and his impressive coaching resume includes time as an assistant coach in the NFL and as an offensive coordinator in the Atlantic Coast (NC State), the Big Ten (Minnesota), the SEC (Ole Miss and Auburn) and the Pac-12 (UCLA, Arizona State, Oregon State).

In addition to play-calling duties as a coordinator, Mazzone has a proven track record of developing quarterbacks for the next level. In 2017, three of Mazzone's pupils started games in the NFL, including Philip Rivers, Brett Hundley and Brock Osweiler. He has also coached Josh Rosen, a first round pick of the Cardinals in 2018, Jason Campbell and Kelly Stouffer, among other notable signal callers.

Mazzone's second and final season in College Station saw him orchestrate one of the SEC's top passing attacks. The Aggies' were third in the league with 252.2 passing yards per game, and their 53 total touchdowns were fifth out of 14 teams. Do-everything receiver Christian Kirk was the focal point of Mazzone's offense, generating 1,631 all-purpose yards before becoming a second round pick of the Arizona Cardinals in the 2018 NFL Draft.

In 2016, the first year under Mazzone's direction, the Aggies were one of a handful of FBS team to average over 200 rushing and passing yards per game, while gaining 467.1 total yards per game (No. 24 nationally, No. 2 in the SEC). The Aggies' balanced attack featured 28 rushing touchdowns and 25 passing scores. For just the third time in school history, the 2016 squad gained more than 3,000 passing yards (3,317) and 2,000 rushing yards (2,754) in a season. A&M's 2,754 rushing yards were the team's second highest total in the last 20 seasons.

During his four years at UCLA, Mazzone's offenses left a distinctive mark on the Bruin record book. The school's single season team records for passing, scoring and total offense were all established under Mazzone's watch, as well as the individual single season records for passing, total offense, all-purpose yardage and rushing.

Mazzone has a long history of developing quarterbacks. In 2015, Mazzone oversaw freshman quarterback Rosen's record-setting first season that saw him set numerous school passing records and earn Pac-12 Freshman of the Year honors. From 2012-14, Mazzone tutored Hundley, who finished his UCLA career as the total offense and passing touchdowns leader in just three seasons and went on to be drafted by the Green Bay Packers.

Prior to coaching at UCLA, Mazzone had a two-year coaching stint on Dennis Erickson's staff at Arizona State that saw the Sun Devils rank in the top 25 nationally in total offense both seasons. Mazzone worked with Osweiler at Arizona State, who became the first Sun Devil quarterback to pass for more than 4,000 yards in a season. Osweiler helped the Denver Broncos to the 2016 Super Bowl and currently plays for the Miami Dolphins.

Mazzone went to Arizona State from the NFL after having served as WRs coach of the New York Jets from 2006-2008 and working as a personnel consultant for the franchise in 2009.

In 2005, Mazzone enjoyed a second stint at Ole Miss as the offensive coordinator. From 2003-04, he was the OC and TE's coach at NC State. While at NC State, he coached All-American quarterback Philip Rivers, who went on to become the fourth overall pick in the 2004 NFL Draft.

In 2002, he was on Erickson's Oregon State staff as the RBs and special teams coach. While with the Beavers, he coached future NFL All-Pro RB Steven Jackson.

Mazzone worked as the OC and QBs coach from 1999-2001 on Tommy Tuberville's staff at Auburn. He recruited and coached the 2000 SEC Player of the Year, Rudi Johnson, a future Pro Bowler with the Cincinnati Bengals. He also tutored All-SEC QB Ben Leard, QB Campbell, and NFL RBs Carnell Williams and Ronnie Brown. Auburn won the SEC West Championship under his watch (2000 and 2001 (t)).

From 1994-98, he was on Tuberville's staff at Mississippi as the OC/QBs coach. Ole Miss won the 1997 Motor City Bowl and produced the school's first 1,000-yard rusher since 1950 in RB Deuce McAlister.

Mazzone was the QBs coach at Minnesota from 1992-94 and at TCU from 1987-91.

The first stop on Mazzone's coaching journey was a five-year stint at Colorado State working with the QBs and WRs. There, he mentored Stouffer, who was the sixth overall selection by the Seattle Seahawks.

Mazzone began his coaching career, in 1980-81, as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, the University of New Mexico. He was an assistant coach at Boulder High School in Boulder, Colorado, in 1981. A native of Raton, N.M., Mazzone graduated from the New Mexico in 1980. He also played quarterback for the Lobos, leading the team in passing in 1976 and 1977.

DEMARCO MURRAY

Running Backs

Year at Arizona: 1st

Years in Coaching: 1st

Hired in January 2019, former NFL All-Pro running back DeMarco Murray begins his coaching career at Arizona, where he will coach running backs for Kevin Sumlin.

Murray, who was recruited by and played for Sumlin at the University of Oklahoma, joins the collegiate coaching ranks following a seven-year professional career. He rushed for 7,174 yards and added 2,165 receiving yards while playing in 99 total games for three teams, including the Dallas Cowboys, the Philadelphia Eagles and the Tennessee Titans.

Drafted by the Cowboys in the third round of the 2011 NFL Draft, Murray totaled 1,560 rushing yards in his first two seasons. In 2013, he emerged as an All-Pro with 1,121 yards and nine touchdowns, before a career-year in 2014 when he rushed for 1,845 yards and 13 touchdowns. Murray added 416 receiving yards for a total of 2,261 scrimmage yards, which was, at the time, the 12th-most in NFL history. He was named First Team All-Pro Bowl and recognized as the NFL Offensive Player of the Year in 2014.

After his four seasons with the Cowboys, Murray went to Philadelphia. He gained 702 yards and scored six touchdowns for the Eagles in 2015, before closing out his career with two seasons in Tennessee. In 2016, Murray ran for 1,287 yards and totaled 12 touchdowns rushing and receiving, earning his third Pro Bowl selection. In his final season of 2017, Murray rushed for 659 yards and six scores on the ground.

Prior to his NFL career, Murray was the nation's top-ranked running back prospect out of Bishop Gorman High School in Las Vegas, Nev., and he instantly made his mark in the college ranks with a five-touchdown performance in his debut for Oklahoma against North Texas in 2007 – an NCAA record for a freshman playing a first collegiate game.

Over his four-year career with the Sooners, Murray ran 759 times for 3,685 yards and 50 touchdowns, while catching 157 passes for 1,571 yards and 13 scores. He also returned 53 kickoffs for 1,462 yards and two touchdowns, combining for 6,718 all-purpose yards and 65 touchdowns – numbers that still rank in the top-25 of the NCAA FBS record books.

Oklahoma won 43 games and three Big 12 Championships over Murray's four seasons, which included Sumlin on staff as a co-offensive coordinator in 2007 when the Sooners won 11 games and were Fiesta Bowl champions. The following season, Murray topped 1,000 rushing yards for the first of two times in his career to help the Sooners to the BCS Championship game. As a senior, he ran for a career-high 1,214 yards and helped Oklahoma win another Fiesta Bowl. Murray twice earned First Team All-Big-12 honors (2008, 2010) and was a Second Team All-Big-12 selection in 2009.

In addition to his success on the field, Murray was a four-time Academic All-Big 12 honoree during his career and graduated from Oklahoma with a degree in communications and a double minor in business and African American studies.

Murray announced his retirement from the NFL in the summer of 2018. He was a college football television analyst for FOX Sports during the 2018 season, which included a broadcast of Arizona's 24-17 victory over California on Oct. 6.

THERON AYCH

Inside Receivers Coach

Year at Arizona: 3rd

Years in Coaching: 18th

Theron Aych returns in his third season with the Wildcats after being retained by head coach Kevin Sumlin in January of 2018. Aych, who coached all receivers in 2017, worked with the inside receivers in 2018, and will continue in that role in 2019.

Despite a heavy lean to the run game in 2017, Aych's receivers were a consistent and critical force for the Wildcats' explosive offense. Shun Brown, Shawn Poindexter, Tony Ellison and Cedric Peterson were all regular starters that will return in 2018. In addition to combining for 108 receptions for 1,522 yards and 12 touchdowns, the quartet emerged as willing blockers on the perimeter to set up long rushing plays. Arizona was tied for the national lead with 28 runs of at least 30 yards.

By season's end, the receiving corps was in on the big plays as well, hauling in five touchdowns in the Foster Farms Bowl - all of which were at least 24 yard strikes from quarterback Khalil Tate. Brown, an honorable mention All-Pac-12 performer, led the squad with 43 receptions for 573 yards and six scores. Ellison wasn't far behind with 37 grabs and five scores, yet he averaged 16.2 yards per catch to lead all receivers.

Aych joined the Wildcats after spending the 2016 season at UTEP and the 2015 season at Angelo State, where he was a finalist for the Division II American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Assistant Coach of the Year award.

In his only season with the run-oriented Miners that boasted an All-American running back and offensive lineman, Aych coached the wide receiver unit that helped haul in 21 receiving touchdowns, the most for the program since 2010. The balance provided in the pass game allowed UTEP to improve its per-game scoring by nearly a touchdown from 20.7 points per game in 2015 to 26.3 points per game last season. Additionally, receiver Terry Juniel was named honorable mention All-Conference USA.

Before his stint in El Paso, Texas, Aych spent five seasons at Angelo State where he served as the offensive coordinator and assistant head coach from 2011-2015.

Under Aych, the Rams' offense put up staggering numbers in 2015, leading the nation (Division II) in total offense with over 560 yards per game and ranking seventh in points per game (42.5). Senior quarterback Kyle Washington, under Aych's tutelage, threw for 3,691 yards (Angelo State single-season record), ranking sixth in the nation. Washington registered 27 passing scores and only nine interceptions. Washington also rushed for 831 yards and 15 scores as he led the nation in total offense and broke ASU's single-season record for total yards with 4,522. Washington was named the Lone Star Conference Offensive Player of the Year.

In 2014, Angelo State averaged 39.4 points per contest, while racking up 469.7 yards of total offense per game. The Rams registered a 9-3 overall record in 2014. Washington set a single-season school record by throwing for 34 touchdowns and being the first Ram in history to throw for over 3,000 yards with 3,236.

Aych previously coached four seasons at Central Missouri in the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association. With the Mules, Aych coached current Tennessee Titans tight end Delanie Walker, who was drafted as a wide receiver in the 2006 draft after an impressive collegiate career.

Prior to coaching the Mules, Aych spent two seasons at the University of Washington on the other side of the line of scrimmage, assisting with the outside linebackers and punters as a defensive graduate assistant. Aych coached two Huskies - linebackers Marquis Cooper and Greg Carothers - who signed NFL contracts. Cooper was an All-Pac-10 selection in 2003 and a fourth-round round selection of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

While at the University of Houston, Aych coached running back Joffrey Reynolds, who was named the C-USA Offensive Player of the Year by Sporting News. Reynolds rushed for over 1,500 yards in 2002.

The Zachary, La., native has also coached at the junior college level - Fort Scott (Kan.) Community College - and the high school level at Aberdeen (S.D.) Central.

Aych earned three letters as a wide receiver at Northern State University in Aberdeen and was an All-Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference Honorable mention selection. He earned a degree in sociology and criminal justice from NSU in 1996. Aych and his wife, Gwyn, have two children, Tommy and Katelyn.

KYLE DEVAN

Offensive Line

Year at Arizona: 1st

Years in Coaching: 7th

Kyle Devan was named to the Arizona coaching staff in February of 2019. He will coach offensive line for the Wildcats.

DeVan, who played collegiately in the Pac-12 at Oregon State before a five-year career in the National Football League, comes to Arizona from Ball State. In three seasons with the Cardinals, DeVan coached the offensive line and he was an assistant head coach for the 2017-18 seasons.

In 2016, DeVan developed an offensive line that paved the way for 220 rushing yards per game, the best mark for the Cardinals since 1978. That year, Ball State rushed for 300 or more yards three times, including a high of 356 yards against Buffalo.

The following year, DeVan's group battled injuries and inexperience with five players making their first career start and seven different line combinations starting games. In 2018, six of DeVan's linemen earned All-MAC academic honors, and the team set a school single-game record with 652 yards of offense against Central Connecticut.

Prior to Ball State, DeVan spent one season coaching in the NFL where he was an assistant offensive line coach with the New Orleans Saints under head coach Sean Payton and offensive coordinator Pete Carmichael.

DeVan began his coaching career as a graduate assistant working with tight ends at his alma mater, Oregon State, where he helped the Beavers to a Hawai'i Bowl appearance in 2013. A season later, DeVan was an offensive graduate assistant at USC.

A three-time Pac-10 All-Academic honoree, DeVan was a four-year letterman at Oregon State (2004-07), starting 38 games on the offensive line. He was named to the All-Pac-10 second team in 2006 and was an honorable mention selection in 2005 and 2007. DeVan helped lead the Beavers to three bowl victories, including the 2004 Insight Bowl, the 2006 Sun Bowl and the 2007 Emerald Bowl. He went on to play in the 2008 East-West Shrine game to end his collegiate career and earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Oregon State in 2008.

DeVan's professional career spanned five seasons (2008-12) as an offensive guard in the NFL. He was with the Washington Redskins and New York Jets in 2008, then spent 2009 with the Boise Burn of the arenafootball2 league before joining the Indianapolis Colts for three seasons (2009-11), where he started 21 of the 31 games in which he appeared (including Super Bowl XLIV). DeVan wrapped up his playing career with the Philadelphia Eagles in 2011 (starting four times) and the Tennessee Titans in 2012 (one start).

DeVan prepped at Vacaville High School in Vacaville, Calif., where he was on the football and wrestling teams. He was the California heavyweight champion as a senior.

TAYLOR MAZZONE

Outside Receivers

Year at Arizona: 2nd

Years in Coaching: 10th

Following in his father's footsteps but looking to make his own mark on the coaching profession, Taylor Mazzone is in his first season as Arizona's outside receivers coach. He is the son of offensive coordinator Noel Mazzone.

Taylor Mazzone comes to Tucson from Texas A&M, where he an offensive quality control coach the last two seasons. Working alongside his father, Mazzone had a key hand in the Aggies' explosive offensive units in 2016-17.

In 2017, Texas A&M was third in the SEC in passing offense (252.2 yards per game) and totaled 53 touchdowns, which was fifth-most in the league. The offense featured Christian Kirk, a second round draft pick of the Arizona Cardinals who accounted for 1,631 all-purpose yards.

A year prior, the Aggies were one of a handful of FBS team to average over 200 rushing and passing yards per game, while gaining 467.1 total yards per game (No. 24 nationally, No. 2 in the SEC). The Aggies' balanced attack featured 28 rushing touchdowns and 25 passing scores. For just the third time in school history, the 2016 squad gained more than 3,000 passing yards (3,317) and 2,000 rushing yards (2,754) in a season. A&M's 2,754 rushing yards were the team's second highest total in the last 20 seasons.

As an assistant coach at UCLA, Mazzone was promoted to quarterback coach in January of 2013. In the 2012 season, he was a graduate assistant coach for special teams at UCLA. He had been on the staff at Arizona State University prior to the stint in Westwood.

Quarterback Brett Hundley continued to put up big numbers in 2014 under Mazzone's guidance. He established school career records for total offense (11,713) and touchdown passes (75) while ranking fourth in the NCAA in completion percentage (.691) and 13th in passing efficiency (152.7).

Hundley, who was selected by the Green Bay Packers in the 2015 NFL Draft, also became the first Bruin to throw for at least 3,000 yards in three different seasons. He finished his career with a school record 19 300-yard total offense games and posted his 10th 300-yard passing game against USC, a total which ranks second on that school list. Hundley leaves UCLA owning five of the school's 10 400-yard total offense performances. No other Bruin had recorded more than two such games. Hundley was listed among the nation's top-25 in completion % (4th-.691), passing efficiency (13th-152.7) and total offense (19th-292.2).

In 2013, Hundley threw for over 400 yards for the first time in his career (410 v. Cal, third-highest total in school history) and his sum of 428 yards of total offense against Cal ranked fourth on the all-time school list. Hundley also became the first Bruin to ever throw for a touchdown, run for a score and catch a touchdown pass in the same game. The Bruins also racked up a school record 692 yards of total offense in the game against New Mexico State. Hundley was listed among the nation's top-25 in completion % (14th.668), passing efficiency (20th-152.9), touchdown passes (23rd-24), points responsible for (14th-216), points responsible for per game (18th-16.8) and total offense (23rd-293.8).

Mazzone joined the ASU coaching staff in February of 2010, serving as a quality control coach. In 2011, he became an offensive assistant and the Sun Devil offense was ranked 25th in the nation (445.8 yds/g) and 10th in passing offense (316.7 yds/g). Quarterback Brock Osweiler (2nd round selection of the Denver Broncos in 2012 NFL Draft) ranked 11th in the NCAA in total offense (317.4). In 2010, ASU was listed as the No. 15 pass offense in the nation and the No. 29 total offense in the country.

Mazzone has also worked with college quarterbacks training for the jump to the NFL such as Tim Tebow, Christian Ponder, Robert Griffin III and Osweiler.

Taylor attended both Ole Miss and East Carolina University where he was a member of the football teams. He spent one season at Mississippi (2005) and then transferred to East Carolina where he played quarterback and on special teams under head coach Skip Holtz. The Pirates went on to play in four bowl games and capture two Conference USA championships. His ECU teams racked up 33 wins as a class.

Mazzone graduated, with honors, from Cardinal Gibbons High School in Raleigh, NC in 2005. He was a member of the football, basketball, baseball and track teams.

MARCEL YATES

Defensive Coordinator/Safeties

Year at Arizona: 4th

Years in Coaching: 19th

Marcel Yates returns for his fourth season as Arizona's defensive coordinator and is re-united with Kevin Sumlin, who he worked for as a co-coordinator at Texas A&M from 2012-13. Yates, who coached linebackers for the Wildcats in 2016, cornerbacks in 2017 and linebackers in 2018, will work with the program's safeties this season. Prior to being retained by Sumlin, Yates served as the program's interim head coach from Jan. 2-14 of 2018..

In 2017, Yates coached one of the youngest defenses in the Pac-12. His unit regularly started five freshmen, including linebackers Tony Fields II and Colin Schooler, along with rush end Kylan Wilborn. Each was a true freshman that garnered at least one Freshman All-American honor, while Schooler was named the Pac-12's Defensive Freshmen of the Year. Fields II was the team's leading tackler, totaling 104, which was more than any UA freshmen in at least 20 seasons. Schooler racked up 13.5 tackles for loss (all in conference play), which against was the most by a freshman since at least 1997. And then Wilborn registered 7.5 sacks, a tally that led all Power 5 freshmen.

The Wildcats also became a much more opportunistic defense in Yates' second season. Arizona intercepted 19 passes, which was tied for seventh-most nationally and the most for the program since the 1985 season. In total, the Cats forced 25 turnovers, which another top-25 mark nationally. Redshirt freshman cornerback Lorenzo Burns picked off five passes, which was the second-most by a freshman in the FBS, and junior corner Jace Whittaker added three interceptions for Yates' starting cornerback duo.

Arizona's defense in 2016 was also young, undersized and battled injuries throughout the year. Still, in Yates' first season working with linebackers, he developed Paul Magloire Jr. – a converted safety – into the team's leading tackler with 81 total stops and 5.5 for loss. Magloire Jr. signed a free agent contract with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Yates previously served as the defensive coordinator at Boise State where he led an attacking-style defense with a reputation for forcing turnovers the past two seasons. Under Yates, the Broncos' defense ranked highly in notable categories, including being one of two teams nationally to post top-10 finishes for turnovers forced each of the last two years. His 2014 unit also ranked seventh nationally in both tackles for loss and sacks, while the 2015 squad turned in the fifth-best rush defense, 12th total defense and 18th-best scoring defense. The Broncos earned a pair of bowl victories along with the 2014 Mountain West championship in Yates' tenure as a coordinator.

In his entire time as an assistant at Boise State, the Broncos won seven conference championships in nine seasons and appeared in a bowl game each year. The Broncos won five of the bowl games, including both the 2007 and 2010 Tostitos Fiesta Bowls.

During his final six seasons with Boise State, five defensive backs went on to be selected in the National Football League Draft: Gerald Alexander (Second Round, Detroit Lions, 2007), Orlando Scandrick (Fifth Round, Dallas Cowboys, 2008), Kyle Wilson (First Round, New York Jets, 2010), Brandyn Thompson (Seventh Round, Washington Redskins, 2011) and George Iloka (Fifth Round, Cincinnati Bengals, 2012).

A graduate of Boise State and an assistant coach with the Broncos from 2003-11, Yates returned to his alma mater in 2014 following a two-year stint as the co-defensive coordinator at Texas A&M. During his time in College Station, the Aggies concluded the 2012 season ranked fifth nationally in both the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches Polls, and won 11 games for the first time since 1998. The Aggies went 9-4 in 2013, finishing the season ranked No. 18 in each poll.

Yates, who played defensive back for the Broncos from 1996-99, was Boise State's cornerbacks coach from 2003-05, before taking over the entire secondary from 2006-11. He added defensive pass game coordinator responsibilities in 2011, before moving on to Texas A&M.

While with the Broncos in his initial stint as an assistant, Boise State won seven conference championships in nine seasons and appeared in a bowl game each year. The Broncos won five of the bowl games, including both the 2007 and 2010 Tostitos Fiesta Bowls.

Prior to his first job at Boise State in 2003, Yates was an assistant secondary coach at Montana State from 2001-02. In his second season with the Bobcats, Montana State won its first Big Sky Conference Championship and earned its first NCAA Division I-AA Playoff appearance in 18 years.

Yates earned his bachelor's degree in social science from Boise State in 2000. Following his senior season, he earned the team's Denny Erickson Award for Valor. He has two children, daughter Kaybrie and son Eric.

In 2016, the Bruins secondary ranked seventh in the nation in pass defense efficiency (105.8) and 22nd in the nation in interceptions (15). Those marks ranked second and third in the Pac-12 conference listings. In addition, the Bruins rated 38th in the nation in turnovers gained (23). UCLA gave up just 12 touchdown passes on the year, the lowest total by a Pac-12 school. The 5.7 yards per pass attempt allowed ranked tied for the lowest mark in the conference.

Fabian Moreau, Randall Goforth and Jaleel Wadood each earned honorable mention all-conference recognition. Moreau was a third-round pick of the Washington Redskins in the 2017 NFL Draft. Goforth, who signed with the Eagles, ranked 31st in the nation in total interceptions (4) and 21st in the nation in passes defended (1.2). Wadood was tied for 9th in the Pac-12 in tackles (7.0/g). Moreau ranked tied for sixth in the league in passes defended (1.0). Marcus Rios inked a contract with the Denver Broncos and Ishmael Adams signed with the Rams.

In 2015, the Bruins secondary led the Pac-12 in pass defense, allowing the fewest average yards per game and the lowest average yards per pass attempt (5.6) of any school in the 2015 season. UCLA also led the Pac-12 Conference in pass defense efficiency (111.5), ranking 18th nationally in the category, and producing three players who received all-conference recognition - Goforth (second team), Wadood (second team) and Rios (honorable mention).

In 2014, four of his defensive backs were honored with All-Pac-12 accolades (Adams-1st team; Moreau and Anthony Jefferson-2nd team; Wadood honorable mention). The unit ranked third in the Pac-12 conference in pass defense. Jefferson, who led the secondary with 72 tackles and was invited to the Senior Bowl, signed with the Chicago Bears. He joined Moreau in a tie for the team lead with eight passes defended.

Martin helped to prepare a secondary which featured three new starters, in 2013. Adams, who came on to lead the team in interceptions, and Moreau were first-time starters at the corners. Jefferson ranked third on the team in tackles (89) in his initial season as a starter. Goforth, the veteran of the group in his sophomore season, was fourth on the squad in tackles (78) and second with three interceptions.

Martin mentored a veteran group in his first season on the field with the Bruins. Senior cornerback Sheldon Price, who moved on to the Indianapolis Colts, matched a school record with three interceptions in the Houston win. Andrew Abbott, along with Price, ranked among the Pac-12 leaders with four interceptions in 2012. Tevin McDonald was listed with the conference leaders in passes defended.

Martin had been on the University of Washington staff for three seasons prior to leaving for UCLA. The 2010 Husky secondary finished second in the Pac-10 in pass defense.

In 2006 and 2007, he was a defensive graduate assistant at USC, working with the Trojan secondary. The Trojans played in the 2007 Rose Bowl.

Prior to joining the USC staff, Martin spent three seasons (2003-05) as the pass defense coordinator and secondary coach at Mt. San Antonio College (Mt. SAC) in Walnut, CA. The Mounties played in the National Bowl in 2003 and 2004. He was also the secondary coach at Pasadena City College in 2001 and 2002. The Lancers went 18-4 during that period, winning the Mission Conference title both seasons and appearing in two bowl games. He began his career in coaching at Monrovia (Calif.) High (1999-2000).

A product of Pasadena (Calif.) Muir High School, Martin went to Michigan State, where he played wide receiver and cornerback from 1992 to 1995, earning first-team All-Big Ten honors in 1994 when he led the conference with seven interceptions. He had 10 interceptions in his career and the Spartans went on to play in the Liberty (1993) and Independence (1995) bowl games.

Martin played professionally as a cornerback for the Scottish Claymores in NFL Europe (1997) and for the Houston Thunderbears (1998-99) in the Arena Football League. He signed as a free agent with the St. Louis Rams in the NFL and spent time on the practice squad.

JOHN RUSHING

Linebackers

Year at Arizona: 2nd

Years in Coaching: 27th

An established recruiter with extensive NFL and collegiate coaching experience, John Rushing enters his second season on the coaching staff at Arizona, and first as the linebackers coach. He comes to Tucson after spending one year in the same capacity at Oregon State.

Rushing's arrival in the desert is a reunion of sorts. First, he played collegiately at Washington State from 1990-95, beginning his career at the same time current Arizona head coach Kevin Sumlin was a graduate assistant in Pullman. Then when Rushing began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Boise State, current UA defensive coordinator Marcel Yates was playing defensive back for the Broncos.

Prior to Rushing's one year in Corvallis, he worked one season as special teams and defensive consultant for the Los Angeles Rams and previously served seven seasons in various roles with the Green Bay Packers.

A three-time NFL Pro Bowl coach, Rushing's responsibilities with the Packers included offensive quality control (2009-10), assistant wide receivers and special teams coach (2011), offensive quality control/runningbacks and special teams (2012-13) and also defensive quality control/defensive backs (2014-16).

During his time in Green Bay, the Packers compiled a 94-46-1 record, highlighted by the 2011 Super Bowl Championship. Along the way, they won five NFC North Division titles, including from 2011-14 and again in 2016. Among the players Rushing coached were receiver Greg Jennings, who participated in the 2011 Pro Bowl, and running back Eddie Lacey, the 2013 NFL Rookie of the Year.

Rushing broke into the professional coaching ranks after seven seasons tutoring the secondary at Utah State. He was the secondary coach from 2003-05, and focused on cornerbacks and punt return from 2005-09. In 2007, Kevin Robinson led the NCAA with 18.9 yards per punt return. He also coached cornerback Jarrett Bush to first team All-WAC honors in 2005 and safety Terrance Washington to freshman All-America honors in 2004.

Montana State hired Rushing for his first full time assistant coaching position in 2000, serving as the secondary coach through the 2003 season. In his four seasons, the Bobcat twice won the Big Sky Conference championship. They also twice led the league for total defense and pass efficiency defense. Rushing coached Kane loane to four-time All-America honors as well as Big Sky Player of the year as a senior. Additionally, Rushing developed Joey Thomas into two-time all-league honors.

Rushing's Division I coaching career began in 1998, when he joined Dirk Koetter's staff as a graduate assistant at Boise State. In 1999, the Broncos won 10 games en route to their first Big West championship, and defeated Louisville in the Humanitarian Bowl. They accomplished the same feats the following season, ending the season with a Humanitarian Bowl victory over UTEP.

Before his time in Boise, Rushing coached cornerbacks at Willamette College from 1996-98. Previously, he began his coaching career as a defensive backs and special teams coach at Merced Union High School.

In his career at Washington State, Rushing set the Cougar record for starts (46) and ranks in the top 10 for career tackles (343). He was named a Sporting News All-American in 1991 and 1992, while earning Pac-10 All-Conference honorable mention honors in 1992 and 1994.

Rushing went on to play professionally in both the Canadian Football League and the NFL. He started with the Birmingham Barracudas in 1995, was with the Dallas Cowboys in 1996 and concluding his professional career with the Edmonton Eskimos (1997).

A native of Merced, Calif., Rushing has a sociology degree from Washington State University (1996) and a master's in education from Boise State (2005). He and his wife Angela have four children, including Angel, Tatiana, Nataya, Kamiah and John.

CHUCK CECIL

Senior Defensive Analyst

Year at Arizona: 3rd

One of the most revered players in program history, Chuck Cecil returns for his third season on staff at Arizona as the senior defensive analyst.

A 15-year coaching veteran in the National Football League, Cecil stepped aside from on-field coaching duties and joined the Wildcats for the 2017 season. He was retained by new head coach Kevin Sumlin in January of 2018. His role includes assisting Sumlin and the defensive staff in areas of overall organization, scouting, film breakdown, analysis and other game preparation responsibilities.

A two-time First Team Academic All-America selection (1986-87), Cecil played for Arizona from 1984 to 1987, first under the late Larry Smith and then under former head coach Dick Tomey for his final year. He began as a recruited walk-on from Helix High School in San Diego, Calif., and finished his UA career as one of the Pac-10's noted and fearless safeties before later being inducted in the College Football Hall of Fame in 2009.

A consensus All-American in 1987, Cecil was the Aloha Bowl MVP and a two-time first-team all-conference selection, plus earned second-team honors as a sophomore. He was named Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Year in 1987 and Pac-10 Player of the Week on three occasions.

Off the field Cecil was a three-time Pac-10 All-Academic selection and culminated his education as a recipient of the NCAA VI Award, one of the nation's top scholar-athlete citations. He was named Arizona's male winner of the Pac-10 Conference Medal.

Cecil finished his UA career with the then No. 1 mark in passes defended, 38, which currently is second to Michael Jolivet's 44 from 2000 to 2003. He led the Wildcats with 80 solo tackles his senior year and also posted the school record that season with four interceptions at Stanford.

Today, Cecil still ranks No. 7 on Arizona's all-time tackles chart with a total of 392. Additionally, he holds the Arizona career record with 21 interceptions and among those returned one 100 yards for a touchdown against Arizona State in 1986, a play that likely rests atop many UA partisans' choice as the single-most electrifying and revered moment in UA football history.

After his storied collegiate career, Cecil was selected by the Green Bay Packers in the fourth round of the 1988 NFL Draft. He played in Green Bay through the 1992 season, before moving on to the Phoenix Cardinals in 1993 and later the Houston Oilers for the 1995 season. The safety finished a seven-year professional career with 461 tackles, 16 interceptions and one touchdown.

Cecil accepted his first professional coaching job in 2001 with Jeff Fisher and the Tennessee Titans, where he served as a defensive assistant and quality control coach for three seasons. He was promoted to coach the safeties and nickelbacks from 2004-06, before taking over as defensive backs coach in the 2007-08 seasons. Later, Cecil was named defensive coordinator for the Titans in 2009-10. The next stop in Cecil's career took him to St. Louis, again working under Fisher. Cecil was the Rams' secondary coach for five seasons.

Cecil is married to Carrie Gerlach Cecil, a native Arizonan who has established a successful communications career creating literary, television, film, online, business and live content. The couple met in their time at UA and have one daughter, Charli. They are heavily involved in community service, including hosting the Cecil Family Golden Hour Golf Classic for the UMC Level One Trauma Center in Tucson, Arizona and raise monies for Eve's Angels, and Ordinary Hero, among other organizations.

ROBERT C. ROBBINS, M.D.*President, The University of Arizona

Third Year

22nd UA President

Dr. Robert C. Robbins assumed his position as the 22nd president of the University of Arizona on June 1, 2017. Since his first day as president, Dr. Robbins has made his No. 1 priority clear: UA students. Soon after his arrival, he initiated a university-wide effort to create a new strategic direction for the University. Launched in November 2018, the new plan designates the Wildcat Journey—enabling student success and preparation for lifelong learning in the Fourth Industrial Revolution—as its most important element.

“I want the university community to be that village that helps each and every one of our students realize their hopes and dreams,” said President Robbins. “Pillar I of the strategic plan is focused on student success, and I think it’s the most important thing in the plan, because if we’re not helping our students support their hopes and dreams, then I think we’re failing.” Robbins is known for engaging students, and he often tells them to call him personally if they need help finding a job or getting into graduate school.

President Robbins also emphasizes the importance of service for the UA, including through research, new products and services that enhance the economy of the state, and leadership in health sciences. He has filled key leadership roles to carry out the university’s ambitious goals, and he and his team are frequently in touch with alumni, community members, and other stakeholders to ensure the UA’s success benefits the entire state.

Before joining UA, Robbins served as president and CEO of the Texas Medical Center (TMC) in Houston from 2012 to 2017. In this role, he significantly enhanced TMC’s commitment to collaboration, introducing five cross-institutional research initiatives centered on innovation, genomics, regenerative medicine, health policy and clinical research. Before that, Dr. Robbins enjoyed a 20-year career as a heart surgeon and faculty member at the Stanford University School of Medicine. While at Stanford, he served as professor and chairman of the Department of Cardiothoracic Surgery, founding director of the Stanford Cardiovascular Institute, president of the International Society of Heart and Lung Transplantation, president of the Western Thoracic Surgical Association, president of the American Heart Association Western States Affiliate, president of the Bay Area Society of Thoracic Surgeons, and chair of the American Heart Association Cardiovascular Surgery and Anesthesia Council, among other roles.

In addition to leading the UA, Dr. Robbins is engaged throughout Arizona, serving on the boards of the Arizona Commerce Authority, Southern Arizona Leadership Council, Tucson Metro Chamber of Commerce, United Way of Tucson and Southern Arizona, and the Greater Phoenix Economic Council. He is also a member of the Chairman’s Circle of Sun Corridor, Inc., and a member of Greater Phoenix Leadership. While at TMC, Robbins served on the Houston branch of the Dallas Federal Reserve board and the board of directors of the Welch Foundation. In 2016, he was president of the American Heart Association Southwest Affiliate. He served on an independent blue ribbon committee to evaluate the Veterans Affairs health system, and the World Affairs Council of Greater Houston honored him as the 2016 International Citizen of the Year.

In addition to representing the AD at University and conference meetings, he managed all facets of internal operations, while being responsible for revenue generation through external operations units. He assisted in the $95 million football stadium expansion as well as the construction of a $14 million football practice facility and a $5 million soccer stadium.

An East Lansing, Mich., native, Heeke received a bachelor’s degree from Albion College in 1985 and a master’s degree from Ohio State University in 1987. At Albion, he was a co-captain of the baseball team and a member of the club hockey team. He was a three-sport athlete at East Lansing High School and received the Distinguished Alumni Award from the East Lansing Educational Foundation in 2007.

Heeke and his wife, Liz, have three boys, Ryan, Max and Zach.

IT'S ALWAYS BEEN ABOUT TOMORROW

Universities are defined by their people. University of Arizona Wildcats dream, play and obsess about a better everything. For everyone.

Change is happening faster than ever in human history. It's up to us to shape this change through great discoveries and advances in health, urbanization, space exploration, communication, cybersecurity and other areas. We develop collaborative and creative problem solvers — people who think from a societal and scientific perspective. Those who have the ability to design, build, analyze, adapt and succeed.

Rich in history and tradition dating back to 1885, the University is on the cutting edge of education, discovery and impact. We are the state's land-grant university and honor our threefold commitment to education, research and community service. Arizona has been named one of the top colleges in the country by The Princeton Review. Forbes ranks Arizona as the No. 1 university in the state.

OUR STORIES: We only see opportunity

Our position in the planetary sciences today has much to do with the vision and drive of planetary astronomer Gerard P. Kuiper. Kuiper is known as the father of planetary science, but during his time was a little bit of an outcast in his field.

Kuiper proposed there was a belt of small planets or comets orbiting beyond Neptune, even though none except Pluto had been found. Astronomers now refer to this region as the Kuiper belt. Today, the University has been part of every major planetary mission with NASA.

Beyond curious

Each year, cardiac arrest kills about 326,000 people in the United States, yet traditional CPR only offers a 7.8 percent survival rate.

In the early 1990s, UA cardiologist Dr. Gordon Ewy listened to a 911 recording of a woman giving her husband CPR. When he heard the woman ask the dispatcher why her husband opened his eyes when she pressed his chest but went to sleep when she did mouth-to-mouth, he developed chest-compression-only CPR, nearly doubling survival rates.

Driven by our history

When President Kennedy said the U.S. will put a man on the moon, NASA called us because we were the only ones who understood the lunar surface.

Today, our country is looking to shape the future of medicine. Certain medicines work for some people but not for others. Why? And since genes, the environment and lifestyle can predict the diseases we're susceptible to, we must create individualized and preventative medicine.

The University of Arizona Health Sciences (UAHS) and Banner Health have received a $9 million award from the National Institutes of Health for the All of Us Research Program, which is expected to total $60 million over the next five years, making this the largest NIH award in Arizona history. This landmark effort aims to improve health outcomes and fuel development of new treatments for disease. It will also catalyze a new era of evidence-based, precise preventive care and medical treatment options.

In touch with our values

When we say people are our strength, we mean it. In 2018 we earned the designation of Hispanic-Serving Institution from the U.S. Department of Education for our enrollment of Hispanic students and dedication to providing access to top educational opportunities.

We serve the entire state. When farmers don't know what is hurting their crops, or city planners are dealing with the future of water, they rely on our statewide network of knowledgeable staff to help solve their problems.

Wildcats for Life

The Arizona Alumni Association connects, engages and inspires Wildcats for Life. More than 260,000 former UA students live throughout the 50 U.S. states and more than 150 countries.

Arizona Wildcats the world over share a mutual understanding of the motto Bear Down. Before UA student body president and revered football quarterback John "Button" Salmon died in 1926, his last words to his teammates were, "Tell them ... tell the team to bear down." Whether it's academics, athletics or research, we've adopted the stance that when the going gets tough, the tough #BearDown.

The Pac-12 Conference

Built on a firm foundation of academic excellence and superior athletic performance, the Pac-12 Conference renewed its undisputed claim as the Conference of Champions® in 2017-18. Beyond the courts and fields, the Pac-12's accomplishments extend into the classrooms across 12 campuses, and outside its traditional geographic footprint into new corners around the world.

The only conference to win 500 NCAA Championships, the Pac-12 once again led the nation in 2017-18 with 12 NCAA crowns. This haul adds to an incredible 175 NCAA team titles claimed since 1999-2000 and 317 since 1981-82, the start of women's sports sponsorship, an average of over nine per year. Even more impressive has been the breadth of the Pac-12's success with championships coming in 28 different men's and women's sports. The Pac-12 has led or tied the nation in NCAA Championships in 52 of the last 58 years, the only exceptions being in 1980-81, 1988-89, 1990-91 and 1995-96 when the Conference finished second, and only twice finished third in 1998-99 and 2004-05.

For the 13th-consecutive year, the Pac-12 had the most, or tied for the most, NCAA titles of any conference in the country, winning at least six every year since 2000-01. No other conference has won double-digit NCAA crowns in a single year, the Pac-12 doing so 10 times, including a record 14 in 1996-97.

Spanning over a century of outstanding athletics achievements, the Pac-12 has claimed 513 NCAA Championships (300 men's, 183 women's, 30 combined), over 200 more than the next league.

Pac-12 members have won 300 NCAA team championships on the men's side, 83 more than the next-closest conference. Men's NCAA crowns have come at a phenomenal rate for the Pac-12 - 16 basketball titles by six schools, 54 tennis titles, 47 outdoor track & field crowns, and 29 baseball titles. Pac-12 members have won 25 of 48 NCAA titles in volleyball, 44 of 49 in water polo, 30 in skiing, and 24 in swimming & diving national championships.

Individually, the Conference has produced an impressive number of NCAA individual champions. Over 2,000 (2,334) individual crowns have been won by Pac-12 student-athletes over the years with 1,370 by male student-athletes. Student-athletes have also captured 186 individual titles at combined championships (i.e., skiing and fencing).

On the women's side, the story is much the same. Since the NCAA began conducting women's championships 37 years ago, Pac-12 members have claimed at least four national titles in a single season on 27 occasions, including a current streak of 18-consecutive years, dating back to 2000. Overall, the Pac-12 has captured 183 NCAA women's titles, easily outdistancing the SEC, which is second with 100. Pac-12 members have dominated a number of sports, winning 23 softball titles, 24 tennis crowns, 15 volleyball titles, 19 of the last 29 trophies in golf, and 16 in swimming & diving.

Pac-12 women student-athletes shine nationally on an individual basis, as well, having captured an unmatched 778 NCAA individual crowns, an average of over 21 championships per season, including 29 in 2017-18.

The Pac-12's excellence is further proven in the annual Division I Learfield Sports Directors' Cup competition, the prestigious award that honors the best overall collegiate athletics programs in the country. STANFORD won an unprecedented 24th-consecutive Directors' Cup in 2017-18 to lead the Conference, leading a 1-2-4 finish for Pac-12 institutions. Five Pac-12 member institutions ranked among the top-25 Division I programs: No. 1 STANFORD, No. 2 UCLA, No. 4 USC, No. 19 CALIFORNIA and No. 24 OREGON. At least five member institutions have been ranked in the top 25 each of the Directors' Cup program, with seven appearing in the top 20 on five different occasions (1998, 2001, 2003, 2005 and 2006).

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Brigham Young's offensive line pushed Arizona around. Tanner Mangum was effective in his return from an Achilles' tendon injury. The Cougars kept Khalil Tate from breaking off any big runs.

BYU expected to be better after a four-win season ago and sure seems to be after opening the season with a road win over a Pac-12 team.

Squally Canada scored on three short runs and BYU spoiled Kevin Sumlin's Arizona coaching debut with a 28-23 win over the Wildcats on Saturday night.

"We've been thinking about this for a long time, so really happy for the team in their ability to get the win," BYU coach Kalani Sitake said.

BYU went 4-9 last year, but was overpowering up front on offense and the defense limited Tate's effectiveness by not letting him get out and run.

Arizona had some good moments in the first half in its first game under Sumlin, but struggled on both sides of the ball in the third quarter as BYU built an 18-point lead.

Tate rallied Arizona in the fourth quarter. He scored on a 2-yard run and set up J.J. Taylor's 1-yard TD run with just over three minutes left, but Arizona trailed 28-23 after the 2-point conversion failed.

BYU never let the Wildcats get the ball back, grinding out a pair of first downs behind its powerful offensive line. "We got into a game that they were able to control the line of scrimmage," Sumlin said. "We couldn't get them off the field and when we did put them in a third-down position, they were able to make the plays to get a first down."

Tate threw for 197 yards and a TD on 17-of-34 passing, but was held to 14 yards rushing on eight carries.

Mangum battled injuries last season, throwing nine interceptions and eight touchdowns before going down with a season-ending Achilles' tendon injury. He was sharp against Arizona, throwing for 209 yards and a touchdown on 18-of-28 passing.

Mangum orchestrated a drive to set up Canada's first 1-yard TD run in the second quarter and opened the third with a 24-yard scoring pass to Matt Bushman that put BYU up 14-10.

"It was fun," Mangum said. "I was just enjoying it, the atmosphere, I love being with the guys and being healthy."

The Cougars began blowing the Wildcats off the ball on their next quick-hitting drive, marching 58 yards for Canada's second 1-yard TD run. Canada's 2-yard run at the end of the third quarter put BYU up 28-10.

Defensively, BYU was effective at limiting Tate's running options, but he found ways to beat them with his arm in the first half.

Tate led Arizona on a late scoring drive in the first half -- with help from BYU's two 15-yard penalties -- and hit Tony Ellison on a 15-yard touchdown pass to put the Wildcats up 10-7.

Tate had success again in the fourth quarter, but it wasn't enough to prevent Arizona's first home-opener loss since 2000.

"Being a quarterback, you want to win games. That's the ultimate goal," he said. "When the team wins, everybody wins."

Arizona Notebook

- Wide receiver Tony Ellison's touchdown reception versus BYU on Saturday gave the senior three touchdown receptions in his last two games. Ellison had two touchdown catches in the Foster Farms Bowl versus Purdue. Ellison's six career touchdowns are second-most on Arizona behind Shun Brown's nine.

- Linebacker Colin Schooler finished with a career-high 16 tackles, besting his previous mark of 14 at California last season. The 16 tackles were the most by an Arizona player since Scooby Wright III had 19 stops against UCLA on Nov. 1, 2014.

- Redshirt sophomore Isaiah Hayes set a career high with 13 tackles, surpassing previous career mark of nine. Hayes missed the 2017 season with an injury and played his first game Saturday since 2016. He started seven games as a true freshman.

 HOU (45-18) King 4 yd run (Witherspoon kick) Drive: 6 plays, 95 yards, 3:17 TOP; 1:48 left

HOUSTON (AP) Houston quarterback D'Eriq King and the rest of the Cougars' offense made it a miserable homecoming for Arizona coach Kevin Sumlin.

King threw for four touchdowns and rushed for two more as the Cougars hammered Arizona 45-18 on Saturday, dropping the Wildcats to 0-2 in Sumlin's first season.

King, who finished with 246 passing and 31 rushing yards, connected with Marquez Stevenson on a 24-yard TD pass, scored on a 1-yard run, then hit tight end Romello Brooker for a 52-yard score and it was 21-0 Houston after one quarter.

Arizona, playing uphill the rest of the game, never recovered.

Houston (2-0) scored twice more before halftime — on a 35-yard field goal from Dalton Witherspoon and on King's 13-yard pass to Bryson Smith for a 31-0 lead.

"I thought our offensive staff and players did a great job today," Houston coach Major Applewhite said. "Getting out to a big lead was huge. It allowed us to get some other guys in the game."

Houston defensive lineman Ed Oliver, an All-American, gets a lot of hype but the Cougars' offense has a clear identity after the first two weeks. It's up-tempo and efficient. The Cougars are quick between plays, giving opponents little time to set up. On Saturday, it took Arizona some time to adjust.

"Defenses get tired with our fast offense," Brooker said. "I think it's really effective. We are improving on offense, too."

Arizona quarterback Khalil Tate, who has been mentioned in the Heisman Trophy conversation, looked sluggish at times, but finished the game strong, completing 24 of 45 passes for 341 yards and two interceptions and a scoring run. He tweaked his ankle in the first half but remained in the game. Sumlin said he and his staff checked on Tate throughout the game.

Tate said the ankle injury affected him a little, but that he still felt like his team did what they were trying to do. "You get bumps and bruises," he said. "We were still able to follow the game plan."

Arizona avoided the shut out, scoring its first points in the third quarter on a 49-yard field goal from Lucas Havrisik.

Running back Darrius Smith scored on a 1-yard rush with 11 seconds remaining in the third quarter to give the Wildcats their first touchdown. With just over 11 minutes left in the game, Tate scored his only touchdown of the day on a 2-yard run.

The Wildcats looked much better in the second half, but it was too little, too late.

"We didn't start fast, we got behind and it took too long to get things going," said Sumlin, who coached the Cougars from 2008-2011 before leaving for Texas A&M. "We have to start faster."

Arizona ran 100 total plays in the game and finished with 531 total yards (381 passing, 150 rushing.)

• Senior receiver Shawn Poindexter finished with a career high in catches (seven) and yards (134) in Saturday's loss. Poindexter's 134 yards were the most by an Arizona receiver since Cayleb Jones had 182 yards in the 2015 New Mexico Bowl.

• Junior quarterback Khalil Tate established a new career high in passing yards (341), pass attempts (45) and completions (24) in Saturday's contest versus Houston.

• Arizona totaled 381 passing yards Saturday. That's the team's highest total since passing for 395 yards in a 28-26 loss to USC in 2014. Rhett Rodriguez had 40 passing yards Saturday, adding to Tate's total of 341.

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) – A sore ankle seems to be slowing that dynamic breakaway speed of Khalil Tate. But the Arizona quarterback sure can still throw the ball.

Tate passed for a career-best 349 yards and five touchdowns, then sat out most of the fourth quarter and Arizona gave Kevin Sumlin his first victory as Wildcats coach with a 62-31 rout of Southern Utah on Saturday night.

Tate needed just 13 completions, in 20 attempts, to amass his big numbers. His five touchdowns, which matched a career best, covered 17, 11, 2, 65 and 75 yards.

“Obviously he had some big plays that he created either in the pocket or got outside of it and kept his eyes downfield,” Sumlin said, “and did some really nice things with some explosive plays. The first play of the game, he sat in there, then the second and third he had three progressions and so he was still able to improvise a little bit. He managed the game well.”

Arizona (1-2) scored 31 consecutive points after Southern Utah (0-3), an FCS school coming off a 45-28 loss at Oregon State, tied it at 17-17 late in the second quarter.

J.J. Taylor returned a kickoff 84 yards for a touchdown for the Wildcats, his first kickoff return for a score in his college career.

“We just made plays,” Tate said. “Like I said last week, you make that one play, I think that changes the outcome of the game.”

Arizona, coming off a home loss to BYU and a dispiriting 45-18 rout at Houston, had 626 total yards to Southern Utah’s 463, despite running 60 plays to the Thunderbirds’ 98.

Tate tweaked an ankle early in the Houston game and hasn’t shown his dynamic running ability since. He didn’t need to against Southern Utah. His passing was plenty.

In the third quarter alone, Tate was 6-of-8 for 215 yards and three touchdowns. That included a 65-yard TD pass to Shun Brown and a pretty over-the-shoulder pass to Shawn Poindexter for a 75-yard score.

After Southern Utah rallied to tie it at 17-17 with 2:39 left in the first half, Tate quickly got the Wildcats back in the lead for good.

His 30-yard pass to Tony Ellison was the highlight of the eight-play, 67-yard drive. From the Thunderbirds’ 11, Tate bought time running to his right and threw in the end zone to Brown for the TD.

The Wildcats took the second-half kickoff and put together another quick scoring drive. With the help of an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty, Arizona went 67 yards in five plays in just 1:55. Tate threw 2 yards to Cedric Peterson for the score and it was 31-17.

Arizona scored the first time it had the ball, Tate throwing 17 yards to Ellison for the score.

“The offense did a great job of controlling the football the first half,” Southern Utah coach Demario Warren said. “I think they had their defense tired and worn out, but our defense just couldn’t stop them tonight. Khalil Tate had a great game.”

Arizona Notebook

- Arizona finished with 626 yards of total offense in Saturday’s victory. It’s the most total yardage in a single game since totaling 644 yards against Oregon State on Oct. 10, 2015. It’s Arizona’s 12th 600-yard game since 2012.

- J.J. Taylor scored on an 84-yard kickoff return in the second quarter, marking Arizona’s first kickoff return for a touchdown since Cayleb Jones returned an onside kick 44 yards for a touchdown against Washington State on Oct. 25, 2014. Taylor’s kickoff return was the first non-onside kickoff return since Travis Cobb returned a kick 100 yards against Iowa in 2010.

- Arizona had three defenders make their first career starts Saturday: Defensive end JB Brown, nose guard Abraham Maiava Jr and SPUR safety Dayven Coleman.

CORVALLIS, Ore -- After an explosive game, Arizona running back J.J. Taylor was asked what was working well for him.

"The offensive line," he responded, then chuckled. "All the stuff that we do at practice just showed up today."

Taylor rushed for a Reser Stadium-record 284 yards and two touchdowns, including a 62-yard sprint, as Arizona ran wild over Oregon State 35-14 in the Pac-12 opener on Saturday afternoon.

Dual-threat quarterback Khalil Tate, hampered by an injured ankle this season, passed for 152 yards and two touchdowns for the Wildcats. Gary Brightwell added 113 yards rushing and a touchdown and Shawn Poindexter had 92 receiving yards and a score for Arizona.

Arizona coach Kevin Sumlin said there was no doubt this was his team's best game of the season.

Safety Jalen Moore had 14 tackles, 13 unassisted, while Conor Blount threw for 137 yards and two touchdowns for the Beavers.

Arizona outgained Oregon State 594 yards to 238 yards.

"We never really found some rhythm out there. We really didn't," said Oregon State coach Jonathan Smith.

The Wildcats led 14-7 at halftime but missed scoring opportunities, in part due to penalties.

Arizona (2-2, 1-0 Pac-12) scored on the first possession of the second half to take control of the game, with Tate throwing a 16-yard touchdown to Poindexter.

With the score 28-14, Taylor's long run crushed any remaining hopes for the Beavers (1-3, 0-1).

Oregon State has juggled starters and playing time at quarterback, but Blount started his third straight game. Season starter Jake Luton replaced Blount last week versus Nevada but injured his ankle and did not play Saturday. Last season, Arizona went for a whopping 534 rushing yards against the Beavers in a 49-28 victory.

On Saturday, the Wildcats had 442 rushing yards.

"It's a stepping stone for our new offensive line to have a good rushing game," said left tackle Layth Friekh.

THE TAKEAWAY

Arizona: The Wildcat offensive line opened up big holes for their running backs, who often weren't touched until they were well into the secondary. . No one expected Tate to match his career-high 349 yards and five touchdowns from last week against Southern Utah, but he was effective enough against the Beavers despite completing 9 of 17 passes.

Oregon State: Wide receiver Trevon Bradford, injured Sept. 15 versus Nevada, returned to action against the Wildcats and caught an 8-yard touchdown. . Running back Jermar Jefferson totaled 100 yards, with 82 rushing yards.

YELLOW FLAGS -- The Wildcats were hit with seven penalties for 55 yards. Arizona had a touchdown wiped out with about 4 minutes left in the first half due to an illegal man downfield penalty. After an intentional grounding call pushed the ball back further, kicker Lucas Havrisik badly missed a 55-yard field goal. Sumlin estimated that penalties cost the Wildcats 21 points on Saturday, and said flags could cause the team to lose a game down the road.

KICKING WOES? -- Havrisik also missed a 43-yard field goal in the first half. Early in the third quarter, Arizona lined up for another 43-yard field goal, but the Wildcats rushed for a first down on a trick play. Havrisik is now 4 for 8, though that statistic is slightly misleading. All his misses are from 43 yards or longer.

Arizona Notebook

- Kevin Sumlin became the first Arizona coach since Larry Smith in 1980 to win his first Pac-12 game as the Wildcats' coach. Rich Rodriguez, Mike Stoops, John Mackovic and Dick Tomey all lost their first conference games as Arizona's coach.

- Redshirt sophomore running back J.J. Taylor rushed for 284 yards and two touchdowns on 27 carries. Taylor's 284 yards are the fourth-best mark in school history and third-best by a running back. He's the 15th player in program history to rush for at least 200 yards in a game. The 284 yards and two touchdowns mark career highs for Taylor.

- As a team, Arizona rushed for 442 yards, which is the team's biggest output since rushing for a program-record 534 yards last season against Oregon State.

TUCSON, Ariz. -- Southern California clicked on both sides of the ball, overcoming a rash of penalties while building a 24-point lead.

Then the offense bogged down. Two fumbles were lost in the fourth quarter. The penalties kept piling up.

What appeared to be an easy road victory turned into an ugly one.

Aca'Cedric Ware ran for 197 yards and two touchdowns, and USC overcame a mountain of penalties to hold off Arizona for a 24-20 victory Saturday night.

"The one thing I love about our kids is they're realists," USC coach Clay Helton said. "To be able to come out of here with a victory and know there's still more on the bone is a good thing."

USC (3-2, 2-1 Pac-12) dominated the Wildcats while building a 24-point third-quarter lead, but lost two fourth-quarter fumbles to let Arizona (2-3, 1-1) back in it. The Trojans also had 18 penalties for 169 yards, including a pass interference call that negated an interception in the fourth quarter.

Arizona's Gary Brightwell scored on a 1-yard run with 1:40 to play, but Lucas Havrisik missed the extra point and USC recovered the onside kick.

"We didn't play very well," Arizona coach Kevin Sumlin said. "Really, after that first drive of the second half, our defense did a good job."

JT Daniels managed the Trojans offense well in the first half before the Trojans went stagnant in the second. He completed 16 of 24 passes for 197 yards and lost a fumble to set up Khalil Tate's 32-yard touchdown pass to Cedric Peterson.

Tate threw for 232 yards and two touchdowns, but was limited to 38 yards rushing. J.J. Taylor, who had 284 yards rushing against Oregon State last week, was held to 50 yards on 18 carries.

"USC did a nice job of challenging us," Sumlin said.

The Trojans controlled Arizona on both sides of the ball while building a 17-0 halftime lead.

USC racked up 281 total yards in the first half, scoring on Vavae Malepeai's 1-yard run in the first quarter and Ware's 26-yarder in the second. The Trojans stymied the Wildcats' offense, limiting them to 116 yards while intercepting a pass by Tate to set up Michael Brown's 42-yard field goal.

Arizona caught a break when a facemask penalty -- USC's ninth penalty of the half -- tacked on to a 20-yard completion gave the Wildcats a chance for a field goal with no time on the clock. Marvell Tell blocked Havrisik's 28-yard field-goal attempt, preserving the first-half shutout.

The second half continued the same as the first: Arizona gained 13 yards before punting on its first drive, Ware ripped off a 69-yard touchdown run.

Arizona's offense finally showed some life with Tate connecting on two long throws. The second one, 33 yards to Stanley Berryhill III, cut USC's lead to 24-7.

The Wildcats recovered a fumble at USC's 32-yard line after sacking Daniels early in the fourth quarter and Tate hit Cedric Peterson for a 32-yard touchdown on the next play, cutting the lead to 10.

Arizona got another score, but took too long in getting it and couldn't get the ball back.

"We just need to play a complete game in all three phases," Arizona linebacker Colin Schooler said. "If you look at our losses, we haven't done that."

THE TAKEAWAY

USC had a good rhythm going in the first half offensively, but labored after Ware's second TD run. And those penalties. The Trojans have plenty to clean up in their week off.

Arizona took too long to get going, unable to fight all the way back from a 24-0 deficit.

TUCSON, Ariz. -- California, searching for its first Pac-12 road victory in three years, dominated Arizona statistically on Saturday.

But turnovers doomed Cal in another loss to the Wildcats in what Arizona coach Kevin Sumlin called "a really gutty performance" by his team.

The Wildcats took advantage of four turnovers in the second half, all by Cal quarterback Brandon McIlwain, turning two of them into touchdowns, and the Wildcats handed California its 14th consecutive Pac-12 road loss with a 24-17 victory over the Bears on Saturday night.

Scottie Young Jr. had two fourth-quarter interceptions, returning the second one 24 yards for a touchdown to put Arizona up 24-14 with 3:13 to play.

Arizona (3-3, 2-1 Pac-12) beat the Bears (3-2, 0-2) for the fifth straight time.

"We gave them two touchdowns and we can't do that," Cal coach Justin Wilcox said. "We had turnovers, penalties and self-inflicted wounds. ... We have smart guys so we have to play smarter. We can't make dumb mistakes like that."

Cal's Greg Thomas kicked a 35-yard field goal with 16 seconds to play but the Wildcats recovered the onside kick attempt to preserve the victory.

McIlwain, who got his first start for Cal and played the entire game at quarterback after sharing the job the first three games, ran for two touchdowns but in the second half threw three interceptions and fumbled the ball away.

He also was stopped short on a fourth-and-one situation at the Arizona 3-yard line as Cal tried to take the lead rather than settle for what would have been a game-tying field goal.

Down 14-10, Arizona took the lead late in the third quarter with a strange combination interception return/fumble return.

Colin Schooler picked off McIlwain's pass and returned it 39 yards. As he was running, he had the ball knocked loose by Cal's Jeremiah Hawkins. The ball bounced once and the Wildcats' Azizi Hearn grabbed it in stride and raced 34 yards to the end zone for the score to make it 17-14 with 3:19 left in the quarter.

"That went from a good play to a bad play to a great play," Schooler said. "It was a huge momentum swing."

Cal drove to the Arizona 3-yard line and went for it on fourth-and-one. But McIlwain was stopped for no gain by Derek Boles and a host of other tacklers, keeping the Wildcats up by three points.

After Arizona fumbled the ball away at midfield, Young intercepted McIlwain's pass and returned it 35 yards to set up Josh Pollack's 40-yard field goal try. But it bounced off the left upright and it remained a three-point game with 7:05 to play.

McIlwain completed 32 of 43 passes for 315 yards with no touchdowns and three interceptions. He rushed 107 yards, including touchdown runs of 25 and 23 yards.

McIlwain was coming off a 123-yard rushing game in last weekend's home loss to Oregon, becoming the first Cal quarterback to reach 100 yards on the ground since Joe Kapp in 1958.

He appeared in eight games, three as a starter, as a freshman at South Carolina two seasons ago. He had been sharing quarterback duties at Cal with redshirt freshman Chase Garbers before Saturday night.

Khalil Tate was 15 of 25 for 141 yards and a touchdown for Arizona. He also gained 40 yards on eight carries despite aggravating an ankle injury.

Arizona Notebook

- Arizona posted just 265 yards of total offense in Saturday's win over Cal. It's the fewest yards Arizona has had in a win since also totaling 265 in a 20-17 win over Arizona State in 2009.

- Arizona scored a pair of defensive touchdowns Saturday. Azizi Hearn had a 34-yard interception return and safety Scottie Young Jr., also had a 24-yard interception return for a touchdown. It's the first time Arizona has had two defensive touchdowns in a game since Sept. 3, 2015 versus UTSA. In that game, Anthony Lopez had an interception return for a touchdown and Jamar Allah had a fumble return for a touchdown.

- Scottie Young Jr., had a pair of interceptions Saturday, marking the first time an Arizona player had two interceptions in a game since Jace Whittaker had a pair of interceptions last year versus UCLA on Oct. 14.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah – Tyler Huntley is flashing his familiar gap-toothed smile a lot more often these days.

"Man, that was pretty tight," Huntley said with a wide grin after he threw for two touchdowns, ran for another and caught a 58-yard TD pass, leading Utah past Arizona 42-10 on Friday night.

In an effort to keep Huntley healthy, Utah coaches talked all fall camp about limiting his hits and making him more of a passer. After losses to Washington and Washington State where the Utah offense sputtered, the Utes committed to the running game and has let Huntley freelance again with his legs and arm.

On a play that typified the game, Huntley handed the ball to Zack Moss, who tossed it to Britain Covey coming the other direction. Covey, a title-winning high school quarterback who is now Utah's leading receiver, threw a perfect spiral to Huntley for 58-yard touchdown.

In postgame interviews, Huntley made sure everyone knew there was no quarterback controversy with Covey.

"I'm definitely quarterback and that isn't even a question," Huntley said after his triple-threat performance.

Utah (4-2, 2-2 Pac-12) led 35-0 less than two minutes into the second half.

Chase Hansen sacked Khalil Tate by the ankle late in the first quarter and the Wildcats' QB was visibly limping after that point. Jamarie Joiner replaced Tate for two series before giving way to Rhett Rodriguez, who threw for 226 yards and a 42-yard fourth-quarter touchdown to Cedric Peterson for Arizona (3-4, 2-2).

"Running was out of the question and even dropping back and handing it off (was hard)," Arizona coach Kevin Sumlin said about Tate. "I saw a player that could barely move, so we had to make a change."

Huntley, who went 14 of 19 for 201 yards, lobbed a pass to Samson Nacua for an 8-yard touchdown that capped a 15-play, 75-yard opening drive, marking the longest possession of the season for Utah.

"We've talked a lot about starting fast and starting physical. I think we've really found an identity as a team and it's obvious to see," Covey said.

In addition to 64 yards rushing, Huntley completed his longest pass of the season (68 yards) down the right sideline to Demari Simpkins in stride for the Utes' third touchdown.

Utah's balanced attack produced 230 yards rushing to compliment 265 yards through the air. Meanwhile, Arizona was held to 72 yards on the ground, 130 under its average, as the Wildcats became one-dimensional.

DEBILITATE-D

Before leaving the game in the first quarter, Tate was 1-of-4 passing for three yards and had just three yards rushing. Pegged as a Heisman Trophy hopeful, Tate has been dealing with a sprained left ankle since the second game of the season at Houston. After running for 1,411 yards last season, Tate has been held to 112 yards rushing in seven games.

TOO MUCH OF A KILLER INSTINCT?

Despite leading 35-10 in the fourth quarter, Mitch Wishnowsky faked a punt and ran 28 yards for a first down. Utah coach Kyle Whittingham has said several times this season that the Australian punter has the green light to run anytime he sees an opening. Thomas Reid III got a personal foul on the tackle and there was pushing and shoving between the frustrated Wildcats and the jubilant Utes along the Arizona sideline. "That wasn't a called play," Whittingham said. "It's just part of our rugby punt package."

PASADENA, Calif. -- Wilton Speight didn't know when he was going to receive another opportunity to play quarterback for UCLA, but when he did he wasn't going to let the opportunity slip away.

The graduate transfer got that chance during Saturday's game against Arizona when starter Dorian Thompson-Robinson was injured during the second quarter. Speight came in and threw a pair of touchdown passes as the Bruins held on for a 31-30 victory.

"It has been a long time but I am happy and relieved," said Speight, who completed 17 of 27 passes for 204 yards.

Speight transferred from Michigan, where he started 16 games over three seasons. He won UCLA's starting job but aggravated a back injury during the first half of the Sept. 1 opener against Cincinnati and was replaced by Dorian Thompson-Robinson.

Thompson-Robinson, who was 5 of 8 for 103 yards and a touchdown, appeared to injure his arm while being sacked during the second quarter, which paved the way for Speight.

"I thought he was good. He hadn't played in a while, so there was a little rust there," UCLA coach Chip Kelly said. "For him to come back in was good. In the fourth quarter he was on point. Once we kind of got settled with him I thought he did a really nice job."

Joshua Kelley -- who had 136 yards on 31 carries -- has rushed for over 100 yards in four straight games, becoming the first Bruins' running back to do that since Tyler Ebell had a six-game streak in 2002. Kelley's 28-yard touchdown with 11:33 remaining gave the Bruins (2-5, 2-2 Pac-12) the lead for good.

"Wilton was excellent. He is experienced and has always tried to stay ready," Kelley said.

Arizona's Rhett Rodriguez was 15 of 34 for 231 yards with two touchdowns and two interceptions in his first collegiate start while J.J. Taylor rushed for 154 yards and a touchdown. Shawn Poindexter had six receptions for 106 yards and two touchdowns.

The Wildcats (3-5, 2-3) would have won the game if it wasn't for a pair of costly turnovers in the first half. Rodriguez was picked off by UCLA free safety Quentin Lake in the end zone to end the Wildcats' second drive.

In the second quarter, Taylor appeared to be going in for a 56-yard touchdown until Darnay Holmes forced a fumble at the UCLA 3 and recovered it in the end zone.

"The decision making in critical moments hurts in a game like this," Arizona coach Kevin Sumlin said. "When you are in these one-score games we have to close them out. Tonight was a situation where UCLA did it."

UCLA led 17-7 at halftime before Arizona scored 13 straight points. After Josh Pollack's 29-yard field goal brought the Wildcats within a touchdown, they tied it on their next possession on a Rodriguez 11-yard touchdown to Poindexter. Arizona took over on the UCLA 15 after Derek Boles' sacked Speight and recovered a fumble.

The Wildcats would take a 20-17 lead on a 39-yard field goal by Pollack before the Bruins would take it back when Speight threw a 25-yard touchdown to Demetric Felton.

Taylor's 1-yard TD early in the fourth quarter put Arizona back on top 27-24, but it lasted only 61 seconds before Kelley's score.

A Pollack 29-yard field goal with 6:28 remaining brought the Wildcats within a point, but UCLA would take over and run out the clock.

Speight's first touchdown pass, which came late in the second quarter and gave the Bruins a 17-7 lead, had a Michigan connection. It was a 24-yarder to Devin Asiasi, who also played there before transferring at the end of the 2016 season.

Speight threw Asiasi his first collegiate touchdown in a 2016 game against Penn State.

- Arizona finished with 12 tackles-for-loss and four sacks in Saturday's loss, marking new season highs in both. The Wildcats had 10 tackles-for-loss and three sacks in a win over Oregon State earlier this season, which stood as the respective previous highs for the season.

- Senior receiver Shawn Poindexter had six catches for 106 yards and two touchdowns. It marked the senior's first career multiple-touchdown game and second career 100-yard receiving game. Poindexter had seven catches for 134 yards earlier this season at Houston for his other 100-yard receiving game.

- Redshirt sophomore running back J.J. Taylor finished with 154 yards on 19 carries for his fifth-career 100-yard rushing game and second this season. Taylor ran for 284 yards earlier this season against Oregon State. The 154 yards are the third-most in Taylor's career and second-highest against a Pac-12 opponent.

TUCSON, Ariz. -- J.J. Taylor burst through holes and leaped over defenders. Khalil Tate was sharp in his return. The defense created turnovers, so did special teams.

Stuck in a recent rut, Arizona picked a great time to play its best game of the season.

Taylor ran for 212 yards and two touchdowns, Tate threw for three scores and the Wildcats dominated No. 19 Oregon 44-15 on Saturday night.

"We talked about playing four quarters," Arizona coach Kevin Sumlin said. "Not playing a perfect game, but playing four quarters and we did that."

Arizona (4-5, 3-3 Pac-12) jumped on the Ducks early and never let them up, turning one Oregon miscue after another into scores.

Tate threw for 189 yards on 19-of-33 passing with an interception after missing last week's game against UCLA with a left ankle injury. Shawn Poindexter caught two touchdown passes and Josh Pollack kicked three field goals for Arizona, which had lost three of four.

"That was my first time missing a game in my whole football career, so that was something different for me to adjust to," Tate said. "I knew I had to bounce back and lead my team to a W."

Oregon (5-3, 2-3) got off to a slow start for the second straight week, committed three turnovers and two costly mistakes on special teams. The Ducks were forced to pass after falling behind early and had 270 total yards -- 190 below their average -- against one of the Pac-12's worst defenses.

"This was a gut check," coach Mario Cristobal said. "We've got to make sure we're working the right way, doing the right things and enhancing those things, and getting ready to take the brunt of what comes with a loss like this."

Oregon fell behind 27-0 by halftime last week, preventing any chance of a comeback in a 34-20 loss to No. 14 Washington State.

The Ducks got stuck in the starting gate again in the desert.

Arizona picked apart Oregon's defense on its opening drive and the Ducks somehow left Poindexter uncovered on a 22-yard TD reception.

Oregon's offense sputtered early and the Ducks kept turning it over to give the Wildcats short fields.

Travis Dye lost a fumble, star quarterback Justin Herbert tossed an interception on an ill-advised throw and Arizona's Chacho Ulloa broke through to block Tom Snee's punt at the Oregon 6-yard line. Pollack kicked field goals after each play, putting Arizona up 16-0.

The Ducks finally got some momentum going with Herbert's 29-yard TD pass to Dillon Mitchell, but Arizona followed with an 18-play scoring drive capped by Taylor's 1-yard run to lead 23-8 at halftime.

"I thought we had some momentum there, but they came right back and scored," Cristobal said.

Tate opened the second half with an 8-yard TD pass to Poindexter, then found Shun Brown for a 27-yard score after a punt hit an Oregon player and Arizona recovered.

Taylor capped the rout by leaping over a defender into the end zone on a 19-yard TD run in the fourth quarter.

TUCSON, Ariz. -- Khalil Tate beat Colorado with his legs last year in a record-setting performance.

The Arizona quarterback took down the Buffaloes with his arm in the rematch.

Tate threw for career-high 350 yards and five touchdowns after setting an FBS rushing record against Colorado a year ago, lifting Arizona to a 42-34 victory over the Buffaloes Friday night.

"Khalil ran around and threw it up in the air, and their guys came down with it on long, delayed plays," Colorado coach Mike MacIntyre said. "Those are tough to stop."

Arizona (5-5, 4-3 Pac-12) struggled early while falling into a 10-0 hole, then scored on its next eight possessions.

Tate orchestrated the rally.

Arizona's junior quarterback ran all over Colorado a year ago, setting an FBS record for a quarterback with 327 yards rushing. He used his legs to buy time and beat the Buffaloes with his arm this time, completing 17 of 22 passes, including a pair of touchdowns to Shawn Poindexter.

"Our offense, we haven't been as good the past few games and we knew we had to step up," Tate said. "The defense has been doing what they're doing and we knew we needed to improve."

J.J. Taylor provided balance to the Wildcats' offense, running for 192 yards on 40 carries to send Colorado (5-4, 2-4) to its fourth straight loss.

Steven Montez threw for 343 yards and three touchdowns, but had a late interception for the Buffaloes.

"What's kind of dragging us down is when opportunities present themselves, we've got to capture them, we've got to make them," Montez said.

Arizona's offense stagnated early and Taylor lost a fumble at the Wildcats' 7, setting up a field goal. Arizona also had a pair of miscues on special teams and K.D. Nixon scored on an 8-yard run to put Colorado up 10-0 after one quarter.

Once Tate got the Wildcats going, Colorado had a hard time stopping him.

Using his legs to buy time, he hit Stanley Berryhill III on a 40-yard touchdown pass, tossed a 1-yarder to Poindexter and 12 yards to Shun Brown for another score.

"That's as fast as I've seen him since spring ball," Arizona coach Kevin Sumlin said.

Two defensive breakdowns allowed Colorado to stay in it.

The first came when Montez caught Arizona on a blitz and found Kyle Evans on a 17-yard touchdown pass. Then Wildcats safety Jarrius Wallace missed on an interception attempt, clearing the way for Travon McMillian's 57-yard touchdown.

Lucas Havrisik hit a 55-yard field goal on the final play of the first half to put Arizona up 26-24.

"I thought we had some momentum there, but they came right back and scored," Cristobal said.

Tate opened the second half with an 8-yard TD pass to Poindexter, then found Shun Brown for a 27-yard score after a punt hit an Oregon player and Arizona recovered.

Taylor capped the rout by leaping over a defender into the end zone on a 19-yard TD run in the fourth quarter.

Arizona Notebook

- Redshirt sophomore running back J.J. Taylor rushed for 192 yards on 40 carries in Friday night's win. It marked the third straight game Taylor has rushed for at least 150 yards. Taylor is the first Arizona running back to rush for at least 150 yards in three straight games since Ka'Deem Carey closed out the 2013 season with three-straight 150-yard games.

- Junior quarterback Khalil Tate passed for a career-high 350 yards in the win. He completed 17 of 22 passes and tied his career high with five touchdown passes. He had five completions of 30 or more yards to five different receivers. Tate now has thrown five touchdown passes in three games in his career, becoming the first Arizona quarterback ever to do that. Willie Tuitama and Anu Solomon each did it twice.

PULLMAN, Wash. (AP) - Gardner Minshew threw a school-record seven touchdown passes and No. 8 Washington State routed Arizona 69-28 on Saturday night, continuing the Cougars' longshot bid for the College Football Playoff.

Washington State (10-1, 7-1 Pac-12, No. 8 CFP) raced out to a 55-14 lead at halftime and was not seriously threatened on the way to its seventh-consecutive victory. The Cougars host archrival No. 17 Washington next Friday, with the Apple Cup winner taking the Pac-12 North title.

With their 10th win of the season, the Cougars tied a program record last accomplished in 2003. They also won their 13th straight home game and set a season high for points.

Minshew, being pushed by WSU as a Heisman Trophy candidate, completed 43 of 55 passes for 473 yards and was not intercepted.

Khalil Tate threw four touchdown passes for Arizona (5-6, 4-4), which had a two-game winning streak snapped.

Arizona was hurt by six penalties and three turnovers in the first half, helping Washington State put the game away early.

Washington State scored on its first possession, with James Williams rushing over from the one.

On the next series, Tate was intercepted by Marcus Strong. Aided by two consecutive facemask penalties against the Wildcats, Washington State advanced to the one-yard line. Max Borghi ran in for the touchdown.

Tate fired a 24-yard pass to Shawn Poindexter to cut Washington State's lead to 14-7.

Minshew replied with touchdown passes to Calvin Jackson Jr. and Dezmon Patmon for a 28-7 lead.

Tate threw a 37-yard TD pass to Tony Ellison.

Minshew hit Jackson for a 6-yard touchdown pass, but the kick failed and Washington State led 34-14.

Arizona fumbled the ensuing kickoff and the ball was booted into the end zone, where Kainoa Wilson fell on it for a 41-14 Washington State lead.

Minshew added touchdown passes to Williams and Tay Martin for a 55-14 lead at halftime.

Tate threw a pair of touchdown passes in the third quarter and Minshew tossed a couple in the fourth.

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) -- Eno Benjamin scored on a 22-yard touchdown and Arizona State survived a last-second field goal attempt, rallying from a 19-point deficit to beat rival Arizona 41-40 on Saturday.

Arizona (5-7, 4-5 Pac-12) led 40-21 heading in the fourth quarter after Khalil Tate threw his third TD pass of the game, 8 yards to Tony Ellison.

Arizona State (7-5, 5-4) started its rally with Manny Wilkins' 11-yard touchdown run and 2-point conversion. Aashari Crosswell's interception return to Arizona's 22-yard line set up Brandon Ruiz's 39-yard field goal, then the Sun Devils recovered J.J. Taylor's fumble at Arizona's 22-yard line. Benjamin burst up the middle, cut outside and finished off his third touchdown of the game to put the Sun Devils up 41-40 with 3:08 left.

The Wildcats got the ball back and marched down the field, but Josh Pollack, who made four field goals, pushed a 45-yard attempt wide right with 11 seconds left.

Wilkins threw for 265 yards and a TD for the Sun Devils, who denied Arizona's bid to become bowl eligible in coach Kevin Sumlin's first season.

Tate threw for 282 yards and three touchdowns, and Taylor had 144 yards on 28 carries.

Arizona State clinched bowl eligibility with last week's win over Oregon while the Wildcats' bid fell flat in a blowout loss to No. 7 Washington State.

Left with one final shot at a bowl game, Arizona jumped on its biggest rival early, racking up yards in good-sized chunks.

Tate hit Ellison on a 28-yard touchdown in the first quarter and Shawn Poindexter scaled over ASU cornerback Kobe Williams in the end zone for a 23-yard score.

The Wildcats had to settle for Pollack field goals on three trips into the red zone, though, including a 36-yarder on the final play of the first half to put Arizona up 22-14.

Wilkins hit Brandon Aiyuk on a 58-yard scoring pass and Benjamin bulldozed his way in for a 10-yard TD to keep the Sun Devils within reach.

Arizona started quickly in the second half as well.

PJ Johnson tackled Benjamin in the end zone for a safety, then Taylor returned the kickoff 66 yards to set up Pollack's fourth field goal.

Benjamin scored on a 14-yard run, but Gary Brightwell answered with a 35-yard scoring run. Tate then hit Ellison on a jump pass for an 8-yard score to put the Wildcats up 40-21.

Scholar-Athlete Awards

2012 Pac-12 Football Scholar-Athlete - John Bonano

John Bonano earned NCAA and Pac-12 Postgraduate Scholarships, the Pac-12 Tom Hansen Medal. He was named a 2012 CoSIDA Second-Team Academic All-American, the 2012 Pac-12 Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year, was a three-time Pac-12 All-Academic honoree.

In 2012, Bonano ranked fifth in the Pac-12 in scoring and No. 1 among kickers with 7.8 points per game. In his final campaign, he was 58-of-59 in PATs and 14-of-20 in field goals. He also ran in for a two-point conversion against ASU. Bonano's PAT with 0:19 to play in the Gildan New Mexico Bowl gave the Wildcats the go-ahead score to win the game, 49-48. He owns the school record for consecutive PAT kicks made with 73.

Additionally, Bonano earned a 2013 Pillar of Excellence Award, given out by Arizona's Honors College to distinguished graduating seniors. On March 3, Bonano was honored by the Southern Arizona Chapter of the National Football Foundation as a 2013 Scholar-Athlete. He earned his degree in physiology in December 2012.

2007 ToyoTires Pac-10 Scholar-Athlete - Spencer Larsen

A two-time first-team Academic All-Pac-10 selection, Arizona linebacker Spencer Larsen became the first league football player named in the initial group of student-athletes to receive the conference's new Scholar-Athlete Award. Larsen's 3.70 grade point average in regional development, his first-team All-Pac-10 playing honor and his exemplary citizenship and scholastic standing helped him earn the award. He led the Pac-10 with 131 tackles his senior year, led Arizona with 15.5 tackles for loss, was in on seven fumble plays (4 FR and 3 FF) and knocked down five passes. He finished his career with a total of 312 tackles. He was a 2007 finalist for the Wuerffel Trophy awarded annually to a top citizen-athlete among national collegiate football players, and an All-America selection by rivals.com (2nd team) and cfn.com (3rd).

2003 Woody Hayes Scholar-Athlete - Jason Johnson

University of Arizona senior quarterback Jason Johnson won the 2003 Woody Hayes National Scholar-Athlete Award in January 2003, honoring an exemplary year as the outstanding man in Division I athletics.

Johnson, who made outstanding appearances in both the East-West Shrine Game and Hula Bowl, earned Academic All-Pac-10 first-team quarterback honors for the second consecutive year, was a Verizon District VIII first-team Academic pick, won a berth on the American Football Coaches "Good Works Team" and completed his final year at Arizona with more than a dozen single-season, career or UA top-10 marks in passing and total offense. He was named the team's Most Valuable Offensive Player for 2002 and elected a co-captain by his teammates. He was a Canadian Football League quarterback and Grey Cup Champion for Edmonton after his graduation.

Johnson completed his undergraduate studies in 2001 with a 3.79 grade point average in business management, then was a honors graduate student in religious studies his final two semesters. Among his community activities were the Fellowship for Christian Athletes, Drug Free School Program, youth basketball coaching, Adopt a Family, Race for a Cure Cancer Walk and numerous youth-oriented speaking engagements.

1996 Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete - Wayne Wyatt

A two-year starting center on the Wildcat football teams of 1995-96 and eventually one of three team captains, Wayne Wyatt earned respectable numbers on the field. But his numbers off the field captured national attention — namely his 3.941 grade point average. He was selected as one of the 16 National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame National Scholar-Athletes in 1996, with an $18,000 scholarship for post-graduate studies, which he used for dental school. Wyatt was named to the 1996 GTE Academic All-America football first team by the College Sports Information Directors of America, Arizona's fifth player to earn first-team scholastic honors.

Wyatt earned Pacific-10 All-Academic and GTE All-District 8 honors. He was honored as one of the UA's distinguished scholar-athletes, named every semester to the Dean's List and earned Phi Beta Kappa honors as well. He received a bachelor's degree in philosophy in August 1995 and a master's degree in business administration in May 1997.

National Player of the Year Awards

1990 Jim Thorpe Award - Darryll Lewis

Arizona defensive back Darryll Lewis won the 1990 Jim Thorpe Award as the country's top defensive back. Lewis, who was inducted into Arizona's Sports Hall of Fame in 1995, finished his career with 14 interceptions, played in the Hula Bowl, was a third-round NFL pick and is a regular NFL starter. He was the 1990 Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Year.

Lewis was a game-turning defensive back; such as the time his interception return of 70 yards for a score helped UA beat UCLA. Or his goal-line stop of scrambling Oregon quarterback Bill Musgrave at the goal line to preserve another victory. Those were huge plays by a big-time player, but a few of many he provided as a four-year letterman from 1987-1990.

1993 Outland Trophy - Rob Waldrop

Wildcat defensive tackle Rob Waldrop capped a tremendous career as the winner of the Outland Trophy for the nation's top interior lineman in 1993.

Opponents double- and triple-teamed him at times in an effort to contain his pass rush and run-stopping techniques. Among his 53 tackles that year were 14 for losses, including eight sacks — a remarkable feat for an interior lineman. In his final two seasons, he had 18 sacks and spearheaded the play, which spawned the Wildcats' "Desert Swarm" nickname. He also won the Football Writer's inaugural Defensive Player of the Year Award, now called the Bronko Nagurski Award. He was named UPI Lineman of the Year as well.

In a superior effort at the 1994 Fiesta Bowl, Waldrop helped pin Miami with its back to the goal and came up with another sack, helping Arizona beat Miami, 29-0.

1994 Lou Groza Award - Steve McLaughlin

Arizona's Steve McLaughlin topped a remarkable four-year career in 1994 by winning the Lou Groza Collegiate Place Kicker Award as the nation's best — the player you want to kick one in the clutch. He certainly did in 1994, earning consensus first-team All-America honors.

He made 80 percent of his kicks during the season, including an amazing 12-of-16 from beyond 40 yards and 3-of-5 from beyond 50 yards. Subtracting a couple of monster tries at the end of periods, he was 23-of-27 from 57 yards and in. He led the Pac-10 in scoring with 95 points in 1994 and was first in the league and second nationally with 2.1 field goals per game. He kicked a career-best 54-yard field goal against California to earn an AT&T Long Distance Award for the longest kick of the week. He made all 26 of his point-after kicks. He was an accomplished pooch punter from field goal formation and kicked off his final two years as well.

He finished his career with 57 field goals in 81 tries and made 112-of-119 PATs for 283 points, third on the UA's all-time scoring list.

McLaughlin acquired the 'let-me-kick-it' attitude that is so critical to the trade. He had some misses that might have turned games but kept his confidence growing. One big day for McLaughlin came when his three field goals helped beat No. 1 Washington in 1992.

1998 Mosi Tatupu Award - Chris McAlister

Arizona cornerback Chris McAlister capped an outstanding three-year Wildcat career by winning the 1998 Mosi Tatupu Special Teams Player of the Year Award as the nation's top player in the kicking game.

McAlister, a unanimous All-America pick and finalist for the Jim Thorpe Award honoring the best collegiate defensive back that year as well, was involved in Arizona's special teams from both sides of the kick.

In 1998, he set the tone for the Cats' big-play 12-1 season by returning the opening kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown at Hawai'i on the first play of the year, tying his own school record set in 1996 against UCLA. He blocked punts in each of the final two regular-season games of the year and had a third deflected punt. He returned a punt 69 yards for a score against Northeast Louisiana and returned an interception 60 yards for a score against Washington State to become only the seventh player in NCAA history to have scored on kickoff, punt and interception returns in a single season.

He was a defensive player who averaged 38 yards per game in all-purpose yardage: eight kickoff returns for a 29.5 mark, five punt returns for a 20.8 mark and five interception returns for a 12.8 figure. What it meant to the Cats for three years was like having a 12th player on the field each time McAlister took his place somewhere among the action. His 18 career interceptions placed him No. 3 on UA's all-time chart, but his special teams' play was unmatched.

2007 Jim Thorpe Award - Antoine Cason

Arizona cornerback Antoine Cason became UA's second Jim Thorpe Award winner and the latest Wildcat consensus All-American since 1999 with his superlative senior season in 2007. Among his highlight-reel plays in 2007 were interception returns of 42 yards for a score against Oregon, a 56-yard punt return for a score against the Ducks and a 60-yard interception return for a score against Oregon State. He had three other interceptions on the year to give him a career total of 15, fourth best in school history. His 165 yard on INT returns was just shy of the school record 191 yards set by Thorpe Award winner Darryll Lewis in 1990.

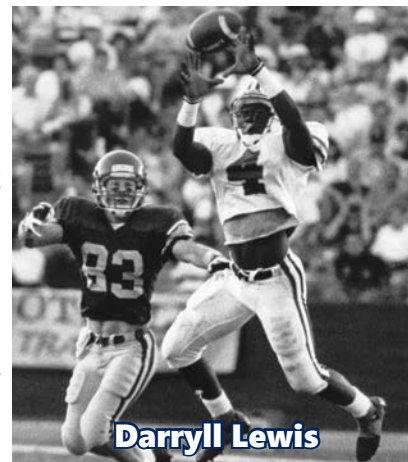

Cason was a two-time first-team All-Pac-10 selection. In 2007 he was named first-team All-America by Walter Camp, the Associated Press, The Sporting News, CBS Sports, ESPN.com, SI.com, Rivals.com and cfn.com. His electrifying play was no more special than his off-the-field comportment as a UA team spokesman and leader throughout his career. His 'Cason Cares' charity drive for cancer research in 2007 typified his renaissance leadership. He was Arizona's Ruby Award winner as the top male student-athlete for the 2007-08 school year. But his senior year's action on the field was special. He finished with 71 tackles, five interception, 14 passes defended, two forced fumbles, a sack and four tackles for loss. His four returns for scores (2 INT, 2 PR) set a UA standard.

2014 Chuck Bednarik Award, Rotatary Lombardi Award, Bronko Nagurski Trophy - Scooby Wright III

Sophomore linebacker Scooby Wright III swept the national defensive player of the year awards in 2014. Also Arizona's sixth unanimous All-American, he was named the Pac-12 Pat Tillman Defensive Player of the Year and the CBS Sports.com, Scout.com and SB National National Defensive Player of the Year. A three-time Pac-12 Player of the Week, Wright was also the lone defensive player named Walter Camp Player of the Year Finalist.

He turned in one of the most prolific defensive seasons in NCAA history. He ranked in the top five among FBS players for total tackles (163), tackles for loss (29.0), sacks (14.0) and forced fumbles (6). He set career game-high 19 tackles at UCLA, 5.0 TFL vs. ASU and three forced fumbles at Washington State.

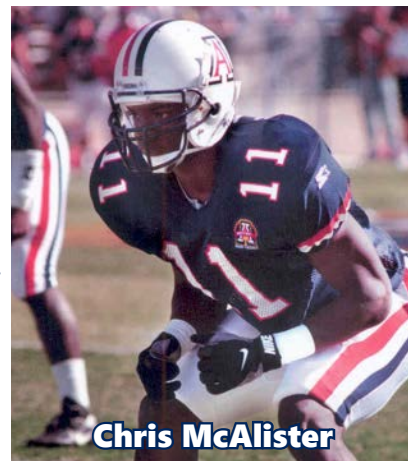

Wright was instrumental in Arizona's 10-win season and bids to the Pac-12 Championship and VIZIO Fiesta Bowl Games.

Warren Woodson

Coach Warren Woodson - 1989 Inductee

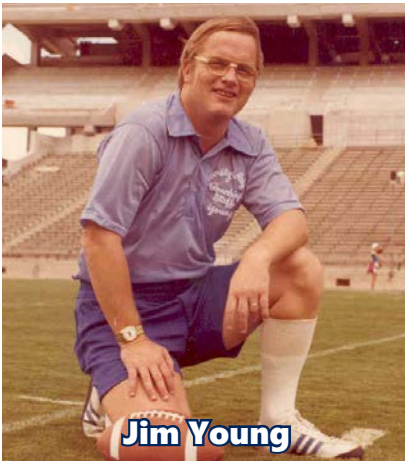

Arizona's head coach from 1952-56, Warren Woodson was inducted to the College Football Hall of Fame in 1989. He served as Art Luppino's head coach during his NCAA-leading rushing seasons in 1954 and 1955. During his career, he coached six NCAA rushing leaders. He led the Wildcats to a 26-22-3 record during his four seasons in Tucson.

Linebacker Ricky Hunley - 1998 Inductee

One of many defensive stars at Arizona over the years, All-America linebacker Ricky Hunley was a hugely physical presence in the early 1980s and became the first Wildcat elected to the College Football Hall of Fame, with induction in 1998. He turned down a Pittsburgh Pirates baseball offer to play football at Arizona. From 1980 to 1983, Hunley was in on an amazing 566 tackles and was a consensus first-team All-American in both 1982 and 1983. He was a three-time All-Pacific-10 Conference selection and was the 1983 Pac-10 Co-Defensive Player of the Year. A team captain in 1983, he also earned Arizona's Most Valuable Player honor in helping lead the Wildcats to a 7-3-1 record. For several seasons, he played alongside his younger brother, LaMonte, also a Wildcat linebacker. Hunley led the Wildcats in unassisted tackles every year from 1981-83 with totals of 74, 100 and 99, respectively. He also set a school record recovering five fumbles in 1983. Now a professional coach, Hunley played in the NFL for seven years and participated in Super Bowls XXI and XXII as a Denver Bronco. He has coached at Southern California and Missouri and served on the Board of Directors for the Black Coaches Association and the Minority Issues Committee of the AFCA.

Coach Jim Young - 1999 Inductee

Former University of Arizona coach Jim Young joined several other coaches — Don Coryell and Jerry Claiborne — and the likes of Herschel Walker, Billy Kilmer, John Hannah, Ross Browner and several other storied players in the 1999 class of inductees into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame. Young, retired in Tucson, had three successful head coaching stints, including his first at Arizona from 1973 to 1976, at Purdue from 1977 to 1981 and a tour of duty at Army from 1983 to 1990. Overall, he won more than 60 percent of his games, at 120-71-2, turning around programs at each stop. At UA, he was 31-13 and posted two 9-2 seasons in 1974 and 1975, among UA's best ever. His 1973 Arizona club finished 8-3 and tied for UA's first conference title in 40 years. At Purdue, he was 38-19-1 with three bowl victories. Coaching the Cadets, he was 51-39-1 with a 2-1 bowl record. Young, who holds bachelor's and master's degrees from Bowling Green, employed passing attacks at Arizona and Purdue and installed the wish-bone at Army to reach national rushing prominence. Young completed his football career as an offensive assistant on Dick Tomey's 1992-94 Arizona staffs after Tomey talked him into delaying his retirement.

Coach Darrell Mudra - 2000 Inductee

Darrell Mudra retired from collegiate football in 1988 bringing an end to a Hall of Fame career, which boasts a 200-81-4 record and two national championships. He started his collegiate head-coaching career at Adams State in 1959 and led the team to the 1962 Mineral Bowl, where they defeated Northern Illinois 23-20. In 1963 he became the head coach at North Dakota State where he successfully turned the program around from a 0-10 record the year before, to a 1964 Mineral Bowl victory. In 1965 he won his first national championship defeating Grambling 20-7 in the Pecan Bowl. He then coached the University of Arizona for two seasons and led them to the 1968 Sun Bowl. After a successful stint at Western Illinois, Mudra coached Florida State for two years before going to Eastern Illinois where he won the Division II National Championship. During Coach Mudra's tenure at Northern Iowa, he led the team to the I-AA semifinals in 1985 and 1987. The Panthers were ranked fourth nationally at the end of the 1987 season and lost to the eventual national champion Northeast Louisiana 44-41 in overtime. He was named Kodak Region 4 Coach of the Year in 1985 while at UNI. Mudra was nicknamed "Dr. Victory" because of his success at each level, but always shied away from all of the accolades, preferring to let his assistants and players take the credit.

Safety Chuck Cecil - 2009 Inductee

A three-time First Team Academic All-America selection (1986-87), Cecil starred for Arizona from 1984 to 1987, first under the late Larry Smith and then under former head coach Dick Tomey for his final year. He began as a recruited walk-on and finished his UA career as one of the Pac-10's noted and fearless safeties. A consensus All-American in 1987, Cecil was the Aloha Bowl MVP and a two-time first-team all-conference selection, plus earned second-team honors as a sophomore. He was named Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Year in 1987 and Pac-10 Player of the Week on three occasions. A three-time Pac-10 All-Academic selection, he culminated his education as a recipient of the NCAA Top VI Award, one of the nation's top scholar-athlete citations. He was named Arizona's male winner of the the Pac-10 Conference Medal.

Chuck Cecil

He holds the Arizona career record with 21 interceptions and among those returned one 100 yards for a touchdown against Arizona State in 1986, one of the most electrifying moment in UA football history. Drafted in the fourth round of the 1988 draft by the Green Bay Packers, Cecil spent seven seasons in the NFL and is currently defensive coordinator for the Tennessee Titans. Cecil has served as co-chair of the University of Arizona Medical Center Foundation campaign for UMC Trauma Center.

Defensive Tackle Rob Waldrop - 2011 Inductee

A two-time consensus All-American during his junior and senior seasons, Waldrop was the Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Year in 1993, received the Outland Trophy honoring the country's top interior lineman, was voted the Top Defensive Player of the Year by the Football Writers of America (now called the Bronko Nagurski award), and was one of four finalists for the Lombardi Trophy honoring the outstanding lineman of the year.

In 1992 he was voted by opposing linemen as the Pac-10's defensive winner of the Morris Award. He earned first-team All-Pacific-10 Conference honors in 1992 and 1993 and was Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Week against Miami in 1992 and versus USC in 1993. He was named defensive MVP of the 1992 Sun Bowl. He earned Playboy Pigskin Preview All-America honors in 1993. During his senior season, Waldrop recorded 53 total tackles, 14 for losses, including eight sacks -- a remarkable feat for an interior lineman. His play, which helped spawn the Wildcats' "Desert Swarm" nickname, was evident in the 1994 Fiesta Bowl when he helped guide Arizona to a shutout, 29-0 victory. He spearheaded an effort which helped the Wildcats lead the nation and set a Pac-10 record with 33 rushing yards allowed per game in 1993, when Arizona led the nation in total defense. He finished his Arizona career with an amazing 164 tackles for an interior lineman, with 44 tackles for loss and 22.5 sacks, which rate fifth in UA's history. Waldrop was drafted in '94 by the NFL's Kansas City Chiefs, played two seasons and later went on to a 1996 stint with the Toronto Argonauts of the CFL.

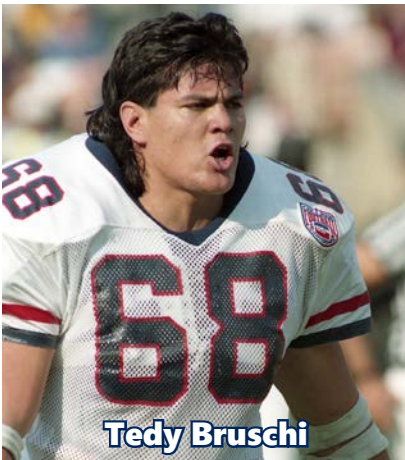

Defensive Tackle Tedy Bruschi - 2013 Inductee

With Bruschi as a key component, Arizona's Desert Swarm defense led the nation in scoring defense in 1992. In 1993, Desert Swarm led the nation in rushing defense and defined a squad that achieved UA's first 10-victory season, defeating Miami, 29-0, in the Fiesta Bowl. Bruschi was named Fiesta Bowl MVP.

Bruschi (1991-95) ended his career with 52 sacks, tied for the most in NCAA history. He was a consensus All-American in 1994 and a unanimous All-American in 1995.

Bruschi's celebrated senior season included the 1995 Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Year honors and winning the Morris Trophy as the league's best defensive lineman. He was a two-time finalist for the Lombardi Award and graduated with 74 tackles for loss, which ranked sixth in FBS history. Bruschi was named all-conference three times and he led the Wildcats to three bowl berths under head coach Dick Tomey.

The San Francisco native was a third-round selection by the New England Patriots in the 1996 NFL Draft. Bruschi enjoyed a 13-year career, winning three Super Bowls with the franchise. The Pro Bowler was named the Associated Press' Comeback Player of the Year in 2005 following a stroke.

Super Bowl Wildcats

Former UA players have 48 overall player appearances in the NFL Championship tilt. Three former Wildcats played in Super Bowl LII at Minneapolis, Minn., where quarterback Nick Foles earned MVP honors in leading Philadelphia to the championship. The trio of Super Bowl Cats in 2018 matched the UA's high for a single Super Bowl, first set at Super Bowl XLII in 2008 in Glendale, Ariz. Retired linebacker Tedy Bruschi and offensive lineman Glenn Parker lead all UA players with five Super Bowls – all of Bruschi's with the New England Patriots and Parker in four with the Buffalo Bills and one with the New York Giants. Bruschi, the NCAA career sack leader when he left college, has the best Super Bowl jewelry collection with three Championship rings as the starting middle linebacker for the Patriots in the 2000s. In 2008, starting linebacker Antonio Pierce and backup DB Michael Johnson took home championship rings for the New York Giants over Bruschi's Pats. Current Patriots tight end Rob Gronkowski has appeared in four super bowls in the last six seasons.

Arizona Stadium is one of the finest playing facilities in the country and was recently upgraded through one of the most significant improvements in its history. The home of the Wildcats, Arizona Stadium reflects the history and tradition of Arizona football and the overall growth of the University of Arizona campus.

The Lowell-Stevens Football Facility, which opened to the public in August 2013, is a reflection of that growth and completed a dynamic shift in the Arizona football culture as it becomes the centerpiece of the program on the north end of Arizona Stadium. Supported by private funds including significant leadership gifts from David and Edith Lowell and from Jeff and Sharon Stevens, the $72.3 million project provides the Wildcats with one of the premier football facilities in the nation.

The facility is a four-floor operations center with strength and conditioning, sports medicine, coaches' offices, locker rooms, meeting rooms, equipment and facility service areas. The structure encloses the north end of the stadium and creates a full bowl with nearly 4,000 premium spectator seats, including a donor lounge with outdoor seating. Additionally, stairways and elevator towers for the concourse connect the structure to the existing east and west stadium sections. Restrooms, amenity areas and a cafeteria also serve fans, campus and the community.

Spectators in the revamped north end of the stadium have a front and center view of the state-of-the-art video board beyond the opposite end zone. In August 2011, Arizona completed work on the video board for the south end zone. The new video board measures 113' wide by 47' high - 6.5 times larger than the previous board - and is one of the largest in all of college sports.

Indeed, the recent upgrades are the latest in the evolution of Arizona Stadium over the years. Built in 1928 with 7,000 seats located on the west side between the end zones, the stadium has grown into a 57,000-seat facility that combines tradition with modern conveniences, remaining one of the top venues for its spectators. Every seat features an uncluttered view of the playing surface, and more than half of the seats provide sweeping vistas of the campus and nearby city skyline, as well as the Santa Catalina Mountains.

Since playing and winning their first game on Oct. 12, 1929 (35-0 vs. California Tech), Arizona football teams have played 481 games in the stadium, 381 of them at twilight or night, winning 275, losing 174 and tying 12. The team has never failed to win at least one home game in a season and has gone undefeated nine times, the last time coming with a 6-0 record in 1993.

As Arizona football grew, so did the facilities surrounding it. In 1989, a $6.3 million structure housing the media, skyboxes and loge seating was added to accommodate increased interest in the football program. Two other non-football features of the stadium are notable - UA's renowned Tree Ring Research Lab on the west side, and the Steward Telescope Laboratory on the east side - two of the nation's most venerated research facilities.

In 1938, seating was added between the 25-yard lines on the east side to boost capacity to 10,000. Nine years later, the end zones were filled, and in 1950, the horseshoe at the south end was completed, giving the facility a capacity of 22,671 seats.

Expansion on the west side in 1965 provided 10,000 new seats, along with an 80-foot, multilevel press box. The two-tier addition to the east stands, adding 17,000 seats in 1976, was selected as one of six outstanding architectural projects in the Rocky Mountain States for 1977 by the AIA.

Permanent north-end bleacher seating for 4,500 was added in 1988, however, it would be removed for the new north-end project. The completion of the Lowell-Stevens Football Facility gives Arizona Stadium a lower bowl configuration for the first time, a 360-degree experience for Wildcat fans.

1921 East-West Christmas Classic

Centre (Ky.) 38, Arizona 0
Dec. 26, 1921 // San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO, Calif. - A dominating squad from Centre (Ky.) College splashed to a 38-0 victory over Arizona in front of several thousand rain-soaked fans, spoiling Arizona's first-ever bowl game appearance.

The Praying Colonels held the Cats to zero first downs in the first half, and Arizona was unable to maintain a good drive throughout the game.

Centre's Red Roberts, one of Walter Camp's first All-America ends, scored the first touchdown five minutes into the match. Later, All-American Alvin (Bo) McMillin went over the right tackle for another score. Centre led 18-0 at the half.

The second half was much the same, as Centre dominated every phase. Just as Arizona was mounting a drive late in the third stanza, an interception ended Western hopes, and the Wildcat defense was unable to halt the potent Eastern attack. Centre's Herb Covington scored on a punt return and a sweep to seal the victory.

1949 Salad Bowl

Drake 14, Arizona 13
Jan. 1, 1949 // Phoenix, Ariz.

PHOENIX, Ariz. - Arizona couldn't overcome crucial mistakes, and the Drake Bulldogs triumphed, 14-13, before a crowd of 14,000 in nostalgia-filled Montgomery Stadium.

The fiery Midwesterners were outgained by coach Miles Casteel's troops, 355 yards to 206, but the Cats had two fumbles and an interception that ended any hope for a victory. Drake built a 14-7 halftime lead on the strength of Frank Metzger's 1-yard run and Floyd Miller's interception of Ed Wolgast for a 20-yard score. The Cats got on the board with a 15-yard Wolgast rollout.

Arizona roared back in the second half, as running back Charlie Hall romped 79 yards with the third quarter kickoff. The Cats failed to score on their first thrust after the thrilling return, but after an exchange of punts, the durable Wolgast tallied his second touchdown.

Drake carried the luck on this afternoon. Arizona's Wrinfred Tackett, one of the Border-Conference's top extra-point kickers, booted the pigskin against the left upright, the ball bounced away from the goal posts, and Drake escaped with a one-point margin.

Wolgast finished the day with 133 yards rushing, eight yards more than Drake's team total.

1968 Sun Bowl

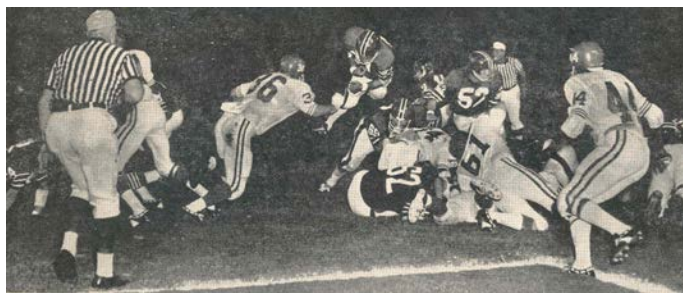

Auburn 34, Arizona 10
Dec. 28, 1968 // El Paso, Texas

EL PASO, Texas - Arizona battled Auburn on even terms for one half, but within a period of seven minutes in the second half, the Tigers scored 24 points to crush the Wildcats, 34-10, before 32,302 weather-beaten fans and a national television audience in the 34th annual Sun Bowl.

Auburn had taken the lead, 10-0, on a John Riley 52-yard field goal, tying a Sun Bowl record, and a 65-yard touchdown pass from All-SEC quarterback Loran Carter to Mickey Zofko. But the Cats were fit to be tied as Steve Hurley booted a 37-yarder after both teams exchanged turnovers. Arizona held Auburn on fourth down with under two minutes left in the half, and Arizona's Bruce Lee went to work. Two first-down pass completions set up a 12-yard toss to Hal Arnason in the end zone, tying the score 10-10 at the half.

In the third quarter, Auburn took the lead and didn't look back as Tommy Taylor scampered nine yards to put the Tigers up 17-10. Then Buddy McClinton intercepted Lee for the third time in the game and raced 32 yards to score. Auburn's next possession produced a dazzling Carter to Tim Christian 42-yard touchdown pass. Riley then kicked a 41-yard field goal to secure the victory with 11:14 left.

Auburn's Buddy McClinton was voted MVP of the game, and All-America tackle Dave Campbell was honored as the outstanding lineman.

1979 Fiesta Bowl

Pittsburgh 16, Arizona 10
Dec. 25, 1979 // Tempe, Ariz.

TEMPE, Ariz. - The 10th-ranked Pittsburgh Panthers survived a late rally and hung on to defeat Arizona, 16-10, in the 1979 Fiesta Bowl. A national television audience was able to watch superb defensive play on both sides. Arizona's defense held Pitt to 299 yards, while the offense denied the Panther's nationally-ranked defense for 317 yards.

Pitt led 6-0 at halftime on the strength of 46- and 36-yard field goals by the game's most valuable offensive player, Mark Schubert. Arizona moved the ball well, but couldn't get the one big play it needed. The Cats drove to Pitt's 37, 26 and 22, but came up empty each time.

The Cats' trouble came on key plays. Midway through the first period, they were stopped on fourth-and-two at the Pitt 21. Arizona managed to get on the board late in the third period on a 38-yard field goal by Brett Weber, but Pitt answered with a touchdown to expand its lead to 13-3.

The Panthers appeared to have wrapped up the game when Schubert kicked his third field goal of the day with 8:02 left. But the Cats reached into their bag of tricks to get back in the game. From the Pitt 47, fullback Hubie Oliver took a pitch and launched a pass down field to Greg Jackson who caught it at the Panther one. Oliver scored on the next play.

The outcome was in doubt until Terry White picked off a Jim Krohn pass with :58 remaining. Arizona's David Liggins was voted the game's most valuable defensive player on the strength of two key interceptions of Dan Marino passes to thwart Panther drives.

1985 Sun Bowl

Arizona 13, Georgia 13
Dec. 25, 1985 // El Paso, Texas

EL PASO, Texas - Arizona and Georgia each failed on late field goal attempts leaving the teams tied, 13-13, and the record Sun Bowl crowd of 52,203 going home with an empty feeling.

The teams battled on even terms for a half with Georgia's Steve Crumley booting a 37-yard field goal and Arizona's Max Zendejas adding a 22-yarder after an apparent Arizona touchdown was nullified by penalty.

The third quarter belonged to coach Larry Smith's troops, who drove 34 yards with the second-half kickoff before Zendejas nailed a 52-yard field goal. The Wildcats expanded the margin to 13-3 with 3:30 left to play in the stanza, as Martin Rudolph picked off a James Jackson pass and bolted 35 yards for a touchdown.

Georgia took the ensuing kickoff and drove to the Arizona 28, where Davis Jacobs kicked a 45-yarder to begin the Bulldog rally. Two plays later, James DeBow fumbled, and Georgia's Tony Flack recovered to set up Lars Tate's game-tying 2-yard run. Jacobs missed a 44-yarder with 1:14 to play. The Cats then used a 25-yard David Adams run to give Zendejas a 39-yard try with :10 remaining. However, his attempt was wide-right and short.

Zendejas and Georgia center Peter Anderson won outstanding player honors. Arizona finished the season at 8-3-1, while Georgia wound up 7-3-2.

1986 Aloha Bowl

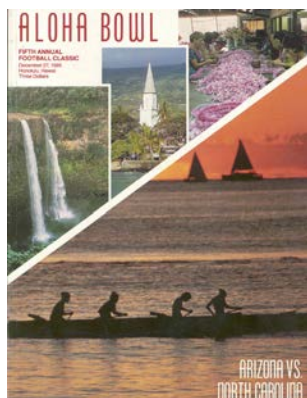

Arizona 30, North Carolina 21
Dec. 27, 1986 // Honolulu, Hawai'i

HONOLULU, Hawaii - Arizona capitalized on big defensive plays to coast to its first-ever post-season victory, 30-21, over North Carolina. All-America free safety Chuck Cecil was the ring-leader of the Cat defense that forced five fumbles with bone-jarring hits.

The Arizona offense showed spark as well. David Adams closed his sterling career with 81 yards rushing and a touchdown and three catches for 77 yards. Offensive MVP Alfred Jenkins finished 12-of-28 passing for 187 yards and a score.

But it was coach Larry Smith's defense which made the big plays to set up points. A Jim Birmingham fumble recovery led to a 31-yard Gary Coston field goal to begin the attack. Later, Boomer Gibson partially blocked a punt, and the Cats put seven more on the board with an Adams one-yard scamper. Danny Lockett's sack of Mark Maye caused a fumble, and the Cats cashed in with another Coston three-pointer for a 13-0 halftime lead.

It was more of the same in the third quarter. Arizona's Jeff Valder booted a 52-yard field goal to set an Aloha Bowl record. Then Cecil clobbered Jonathan Hall, and Jerry Beasley recovered the subsequent fumble at the Tar Heel 30. Jenkins found Jon Horton from 13 yards out for the quick score. Another Tar Heel fumble led to Greathouse's five-yard scoring run, and the Cats were in control.

1989 Copper Bowl

Arizona 17, North Carolina State 10
Dec. 31, 1989 // Tucson, Ariz.

TUCSON, Ariz. - Arizona cashed in on big plays to defeat North Carolina State, 17-10, before an Arizona Stadium crowd of 37,237 in the inaugural Copper Bowl. The Wildcats were dominated statistically, 310 yards to 130 yards including a season-low 50 yards on the turf. However, two unlikely heroes, Olatide Ogunfiditimi and Scott Geyer, made the big plays to pull out the victory.

In the first stanza, neither team could sustain drives, but the Cats got on the board first as Ronald Veal found a double-covered Ogunfiditimi 37 yards down field for a 7-0 advantage. The second quarter proved more magical as Geyer, the Defensive MVP, intercepted Shane Montgomery and raced 85 yards for a score.

But the Wolfpack had a magic wand of their own as Montgomery, the Offensive MVP, capped a 56-yard, nine-play drive with a four-yard touchdown toss to fullback Todd Varn to cut the lead, 14-7. The half ended with a Gary Coston 34-yard field goal. Score: 17-7.

The second half included a Damon Hartman 43-yarder to inch the Pack closer, 17-10. However the New Year brought a little luck to the Cats, as Montgomery just missed a diving Chris Williams over the middle for the possible tying touchdown with 1:02 left.

Arizona Dick Tomey notched a victory in his first-ever bowl game in 13 years as a head coach. The Wildcats finished 8-4 on the season, and the Wolfpack closed at 7-5.

1990 Eagle Aloha Bowl

Syracuse 28, Arizona 0
Dec. 25, 1990 // Honolulu, Hawai'i

HONOLULU, Hawaii - Marvin Graves ran for two touchdowns and passed for another score as Syracuse embarrassed Arizona, 28-0, in the ninth Eagle Aloha Bowl game in rain-drenched Aloha Stadium.

Graves scored on a pair of 5-yard runs and threw 47 yards to Terry Richardson and 6 yards to Chris Gedney as the Orangemen ran their record to 7-4-2. Arizona fell to 7-5. The shutout snapped Arizona's 214-game scoring streak, the second longest scoring streak in NCAA history. The last time the Cats were shut out was a 31-0 defeat by Arizona State in 1971.

The Orangemen drove 65 yards in 13 plays following the opening kickoff with Graves scoring on a quarterback draw from the five with 8:35 left in the first quarter.

Syracuse made it 14-0 with 2:22 remaining in the half as Richardson slipped behind the Cat pass defense for an easy 47-yard reception. Arizona tried to get back into the game in the third quarter, twice reaching the Orangemen 35-yard line. But both drives died, and Syracuse put the game away in the fourth quarter with two long marches.

Graves was selected as Syracuse's most valuable player, and cornerback Todd Burden, who had two interceptions and caused a fumble, was selected as Arizona's most valuable player. The week-long inclement weather put a damper on many activities and caused many ticket purchasers to stay at home. There were 32,217 tickets sold but only 14,185 attended the game.

1992 Hancock Bowl

Baylor 20, Arizona 15
Dec. 31, 1992 // El Paso, Texas

EL PASO, Texas - Arizona's defense lived up to its billing on all but two plays; those spelled doom as Baylor's big scoring passes helped beat the Cats, 20-15, in the John Hancock Bowl.

UA, which unleashed a no-huddle, wide-open passing attack, opened scoring with a Steve McLaughlin first-quarter field goal and increased the lead to 10-0 with a 65-yard scoring drive capped by a George Malauulu quarterback draw for seven yards mid-way through the second quarter.

BU halfback Brandell Jackson hit Melvin Bonner for a 61-yard strike three minutes later, but Arizona answered with a 14-play drive to set up another McLaughlin field goal and take a 13-7 halftime lead.

The Bears, held to 47 yards rushing, went to the air and struck again with another Bonner TD catch for 69 yards from QB J.J. Joe. Shortly into the fourth period, the Bears capitalized on two Arizona fumbles in UA territory and cashed them in for two Terry Weir field goals and a 20-13 lead.

With time running out, Arizona held BU deep on fourth-and-eight, and punter Rhett Delaney took an intentional safety at 0:31. A Chuck Levy 27-yard kickoff return put the Cats in decent shape, and UA drove to the Baylor 28. Two passes from Malauulu into the end zone were incomplete although Heath Bray nearly snagged the game winner on the first try.

1994 IBM OS/2 Fiesta Bowl

Arizona 29, Miami 0
Jan. 1, 1994 // Tempe, Ariz.

TEMPE, Ariz. - Arizona's heralded "Desert Swarm" defense lived up to its name, and the Cats' offensive attack nearly named its own price as UA thumped No. 10 Miami, 29-0, in IBM OS/2 Fiesta Bowl XXIII. The convincing victory was the bowl's only shutout in its 23-game history.

UA ran for 257 yards and one touchdown, passed for 152 yards and two touchdowns, had three Steve McLaughlin field goals and held Miami to 182 yards in total offense. The Wildcats' swarming defense limited the Canes to Fiesta Bowl record-lows of 22 rushes and 35 yards, plus picked off three Miami passes and sacked the quarterback four times.

Tailback Chuck Levy ran for 142 yards including a 68-yard scoring dash and earned Fiesta Bowl offensive MVP honors, while defensive end Tedy Bruschi recorded a sack and earned defensive MVP honors for UA.

UA jumped to a quick lead on its first possession, driving 75 yards with Dan White throwing a 13-yard TD pass to Troy Dickey. Arizona never looked back.

The Canes' total offense was the second-lowest in Fiesta Bowl history, and the Arizona margin of victory was the second-largest in bowl history. Arizona enjoyed a time of possession advantage of 37:20 to 22:40 for Miami, another bowl record. Miami's frustration was typified by its first possession, starting at its own 37-yard line. Three plays later the Canes punted on fourth-and-41 from their own 6-yard line.

The game gave UA its first 10-victory season in 90 years of football, and its strong showing earned the Cats a No. 9 final ranking in the coaches poll and No. 10 in the media poll.

1994 Freedom Bowl

Utah 16, Arizona 13
Dec. 27, 1994 // Anaheim, Calif.

ANAHEIM, Calif. - Utah used a 72-yard kickoff return to set up the winning touchdown, as the Utes upset No. 14 Arizona in the 11th annual Freedom Bowl, 16-13. A crowd of 27,477 watched as the Cats used a stifling defense to hold Utah to only 75 yards of total offense.

Arizona quarterback Dan White connected with Ontiwaun Carter from 23 yards out to give the Cats the early lead. After a White fumble deep in Arizona territory, Utah running back Charlie Brown scampered in from six yards out to tie the score.

After a 44-yard field goal by Steve McLaughlin, the Cats had first-and-goal at the Utah 2-yard line, but two dropped passes by Tim Thomas and then Lamar Lovett in the end zone forced the Cats to kick a 20-yard field goal. Late in the fourth quarter with Arizona leading 13-7, and Matt Peyton having to punt from his own end zone, the Cats gambled and took a safety as Peyton stepped out of the back of the end zone.

On the ensuing kickoff, Cal Beck returned the ball to the Arizona 5-yard line. The Wildcat defense held the Utes on three straight downs to set up a fourth-and-goal. Quarterback Mike McCoy scrambled out of the pocket and was in the grasp of Chuck Osborne but managed to get the pass off and found Kevin Dyson in the corner of the end zone for the winning score. A final UA drive ended in an interception.

The Cats recorded six sacks on the day, three of them by Teddy Bruschi, who earned Defensive MVP honors. Chuck Osborne had two sacks, and Sean Harris led the team with nine tackles.

1997 Insight.com Bowl

Arizona 20, New Mexico 14
Dec. 27, 1997 // Tucson, Ariz.

TUCSON, Ariz. - Four Wildcat interceptions helped seal a hard-fought victory for Arizona over New Mexico in the ninth Insight.com Bowl, 20-14, before a crowd of 49,385 in the Cats' house, Arizona Stadium.

UA ran over the Lobos, using a 209-yard running attack featuring the quicker Trung Canidate and the bruising style of Kelvin Eafon on 43 of the team's 81 plays. Canidate was named the game's Most Outstanding Offensive Player with 97 yards and a touchdown on 24 carries, while Eafon earned the game's Most Valuable Player award for his 75 yards and two touchdowns on 19 totes. Thirteen of his rushes came in the fourth quarter when Arizona used ball possession to turn back New Mexico efforts at a game-winning touchdown.

Arizona picked off four passes by UNM's Graham Leigh—one in the first quarter by cornerback Chris McAlister, two in the third quarter by backup corner Kelvin Hunter and strong safety Rashee Johnson, and one in the fourth stanza by cornerback Kelly Malveaux, who returned the ball 44 yards just as the Lobos were crossing midfield. It was Malveaux' first interception of the year. Arizona outside linebacker Jimmy Spottle earned the bowl's Most Outstanding Defensive Player honor with nine tackles including four hits for losses of 12 yards. Inside linebacker Marcus Bell was the Cats' leading tackler with 10.

Arizona coach Dick Tomey gave fifth-year senior QB Brady Batten the start in the game. An injury early in the year cost him a shot at the every-day spot. He played all but the fourth quarter, when the nominal No. 1 guy for most of the year, Ortege Jenkins, came on.

1998 Culligan Holiday Bowl

Arizona 23, Nebraska 20
Dec. 30, 1998 // San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO, Calif. - Arizona's defense held the storied Nebraska option rushing attack to 87 net yards, and the No. 5-ranked Wildcats cranked up some tough-guy rushing of their own to score 14 fourth-quarter points and beat the No. 14 Cornhuskers, 23-20, in the 21st annual Culligan Holiday Bowl.

The Cats secured the school's finest record in history and earned enough acclaim through their efforts in the game — the most watched of any college bowl game in ESPN history — to earn a final No. 4 ranking in both the Associated Press and USA Today/ESPN polls.

Unanimous All-America cornerback Chris McAlister cemented his reputation with an outstanding effort, intercepting two passes, one which turned the Huskers back on their final come-back try with less than four minutes remaining. He also had a 78-yard reverse punt return called back because of a questionable blocking call against Derek Hall.

Arizona trailed 13-9 at the half, and both teams struggled through five possessions in the third quarter before UA's Dennis Northcutt gave the Cats some decent field position with a 16-yard punt return to start a 10-play scoring drive. Trung Canidate rushed five times for 37 yards in the span, and Keith Smith completed passes of five yards to Northcutt and Paul Shields and topped it off with a 15-yard strike to Brad Brennan for the score.

Nebraska answered, though, and reclaimed the lead at 20-16 with an eight-play, 88-yard drive, almost exclusively through the air.

With 10 minutes remaining, Smith opened UA's next drive with a seven-yard pass to Shields, then the Cats ran the ball eight straight times for the nine-play, 68-yard drive which netted the final score on a Kelvin Eafon one-yard plunge. Smith had runs of 20, eight and eight yards to set up the score.

UA halted the Huskers with McAlister's second pick and then later used enough clock with a first down to force Nebraska to get the ball back with 34 seconds remaining. One short completion and three incompletions, and the game was over.

Canidate ran for 101 yards on 22 carries. Smith, who completed 11-of-19 passing for 143 yards and ran for 25 more, was named Holiday Bowl Offensive MVP. UA's Mark McDonald, who was 8-17 in field goals during the regular season, was a big key with a perfect 3-for-3 day, including a career-long 48-yarder. NU outgained the Cats, but UA won the turnover battle and kicking game.

2008 Las Vegas Bowl

Arizona 31, BYU 21
Dec. 20, 2008 // Las Vegas, Nev.

LAS VEGAS, Nev. - Arizona capped its best season in nine years with a solid effort against No. 17 Brigham Young, beating the Cougars 31-21 in the Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl.

The Cats took the first lead, set up by a 71-yard pass from Willie Tuitama to Terrell Turner, added a Jason Bondzio 31-yard field goal a third of the way into the second quarter.

Tuitama fumbled a low snap on the first play of the second half and BYU took a 14-10 lead four minutes into the frame with the gift 27-yard drive.

After that, Arizona stalled once, missing a 3rd-and-1 opportunity, but turned right around for a defensive three-and-out and two plays later Tuitama's 37-yard pass to Delashaun Dean struck put the Cats back in the lead.

The Cougs fought back with a 12-play, 39-yard drive, but missed a long field goal attempt. Tuitama hit successive passes of 19 and 17 yards, and after a five-yard gain by Nic Grigsby fired one down the seam to a streaking Chris Gronkowski for a 27-yard score, making it 24-14 at the end of the period.

Five minutes into the final period, Wildcat cornerback Marquis Hundley manned up and intercepted BYU's Max Hall in the end zone, taking it out to the UA 18 yard-line. Tuitama led a seven-play, 82-yard drive, sparked by a 27-yard run by Grigsby and a 23-yard pass to Turner, and then ran it in himself from six yards out for a 31-14 lead. Again the Cougars showed some of their 17th-ranked gumption, using eight Hall passes and two of his runs to get into the end zone quickly, and recovered an ensuing onside kick at the UA 48 yard-line. Hall drove BYU 28 yards, but Mitch Payne's field goal attempt banged off the left upright with 2:07 left.

The Cats ran the ball four times and then Tuitama scootched a three-yard pass to Mike Thomas on the final play of the game, giving the latter the Pac-10 career receiving record with his 259th reception as time expired. Dean led UA with seven catches for 88 yards to help Tuitama complete 24 of 35 throws for 325 yards and the game's MVP award.

2009 Holiday Bowl

Nebraska 33, Arizona 0
Dec. 30, 2009 // San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO, Calif. - No. 20 Nebraska showed it was more than two ranking spots ahead of No. 22 Arizona by throttling the Wildcats, 33-0, in the Holiday Bowl.

After developing a reputation for high-scoring games and crazy finishes, the bowl got the first shutout in its 32-year history. Zac Lee threw a 74-yard touchdown pass to Niles Paul in the third quarter to highlight the win, but it was only one moment in a dominating effort.

The coaches expected a defensive game, and the Huskers delivered, earning their first shutout in 46 bowl appearances, plus held UA to 109 net yards. Arizona quarterback Nick Foles was harassed all night and had one of his toughest outings of the year, finishing with nine completions in 30 attempts, for a miniscule 48 yards.

The Wildcats had the ball fourth-and-3 at the Nebraska 8-yard line with 1:41 to go, and eschewed a field goal, with safety P.J. Smith batting down Foles' pass to preserve the shutout. Nebraska free safety Matt O'Hanlon intercepted Foles on the third play from scrimmage and returned it 37 yards to the Arizona 5. Lee scored on a four-yard run two plays later. It was the fastest score in Holiday Bowl history, coming just 75 seconds in.

Nebraska (10-4) got its first 10-win season since 2003. Nebraska's Alex Henery set a Holiday Bowl record with four field goals, from 47, 50, 41 and 22 yards. Arizona finished 8-5. NU coach Bo Pelini earned bragging rights in Youngstown, Ohio, where he and UA coach Mike Stoops grew up and played at Cardinal Mooney High.

2010 Alamo Bowl

Oklahoma State 36, Arizona 10
Dec. 29, 2010 // San Antonio, Texas

SAN ANTONIO, Texas - No. 14 Oklahoma State kept Arizona's offense out of the end zone and used four Wildcat turnovers to spoil the Pac-10's first game in the bowl since its early years.

Arizona outgained the Cowboys 370 to 312 yards, holding the vaunted OSU offense some 200 yards under its average. After an initial stop, however, Bug Wright fumbled the first punt of the game and gave OSU a short field for a 26-yard drive and the lead. The Cats were stopped on their next possession and OSU's Brandon Weeden connected on a 71-yard toss to Justin Blackmon to add to the lead.

UA answered with a 63-yard drive to cut it to 14-7. After an exchange of possession a short UA punt set the Cowboys up at midfield and OSU settled for the first of three Dan Bailey FGs. On Arizona's ensuing drive, Nick Foles was intercepted by Markelle Martin and returned 62 yards for a score. Bailey missed the kick and it was 23-. UA took the ball inside the OSU 40 yard-line three times but could not score before halftime.

UA showed some life with an Alex Zendejas field goal in the third quarter to make it 23-10 but OSU answered with its longest drive of the night to make it 30-10. Another Foles' interception near midfield set up a second Bailey field goal. Zendejas missed a 34-yarder minutes later in the fourth period, and Bailey knocked one home again for the final score. UA drove to the OSU 9 yard-line but could not cash in on 3rd- and 4th-and-1.

The Cats had 25 first downs to 17 by the Cowboys, held a 15-minute edge in time of possession but were one for three in the red zone, were sacked five times (to zero for UA), and suffered three interceptions and the fumbled punt for -4 turnover margin.

Receiver David Douglas took home the Fred Jacoby Sportsmanship Award for a 6-catch, 91-yard evening while the bowl offensive MVP award went to Blackmon for eight receptions for 112 yards and two scores, and the defensive MVP honor went to OSU defensive back Martin for his key INT.

2015 New Mexico Bowl

Arizona 45, New Mexico 37
Dec. 19, 2015 // Albuquerque, N.M.

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - Quarterback Anu Solomon and All-America linebacker Scooby Wright III returned from injuries to help Arizona (7-6) hold off pesky New Mexico 45-37 in a wild New Mexico Bowl.

Solomon threw for two touchdowns and rushed for another score against New Mexico (7-6) in a game that saw New Mexico surge late after being down as many of 18 points. Wright had two sacks and 11 solo tackles.

After the game, Wright announced he would enter the NFL draft.

Arizona's high-temp offense needed only 19:08 minutes of possession time to overwhelm New Mexico in the Lobos' first bowl appearance since 2007.

Jared Baker ran for 107 yards and three touchdowns, and Cayleb Jones had 182 yards receiving and a touchdown.

For Arizona, the New Mexico Bowl win comes just a year after Arizona eyed a playoff spot. Rodriguez said a bowl appearance and a victory was just fine for the team.

Meanwhile, New Mexico quarterback Lamar Jordan rushed for three touchdowns and threw a 92-yard touchdown pass to Delane Hart-Johnson before leaving in the third quarter with a knee injury. However, Jordan tossed two key interceptions -- one in Arizona's end zone and another deep in New Mexico territory.

After Jordan's departure, the Lobos then turned to a committee of running backs to get New Mexico back in the game.

Still, Arizona was able to hold star running back Jhurrell Pressley to 75 rushing yards and no touchdowns.

The Nation's Oldest Rivalry Trophy

In summer 2001, officials at Arizona and Arizona State received NCAA Division I-A designation for the 1899 Territorial Cup as the oldest trophy for a rivalry game in America. The annual Arizona-Arizona State winner obtains possession of the Cup for its Hall of Fame, a replica goes to the winning school's president's office, and two later trophies used over the years in the hard-fought rivalry are awarded to the winning coach and the Most Valuable Player.

On Thanksgiving Day in 1899, then Arizona Territorial Normal School defeated Arizona 11-2 in front of a reported 300 fans, and the Cup had its first curator. But over the years, the silver-plated antique prize was misplaced and supplanted by various other awards for the Big Game - the Governor's Trophy (1953-1979), a "Victory" sculpture by artist Ben Goo, and a Saguaro Trophy, among others. Now, to ensure the safety of the original trophy, the actual Territorial Cup moves from one school to the other only under escort and the supervision of gloved archivists.

Each year, members of the media vote on a Most Valuable Player at the conclusion of the game. Since 2008, the honor has been named the Bob Moran Most Valuable Player Award, named after the longtime East Valley Tribune sports reporter who also worked at the Arizona Daily Star for 13 years and covered both schools as a beat writer and columnist. The Ben Goo Trophy, awarded from 1979 to 1998 as the game trophy, has become the physical award given to the game's MVP. The Saguaro Trophy, a smaller bronze piece commissioned from artist Dora Perry in 1998, is presented and kept each year by the winning coach.

World War II Years
No teams fielded

Like many schools around the nation, Arizona did not field a football team during the World War II years of 1943 and 1944. The war began affecting college football programs as early as 1942, though the Wildcats managed a 6-4 record under coach Miles W. Casteel in their final season before the two-year hiatus.

Among those on the 1942 squad were William "Bill" Lowell (pictured), Rue Mattice and Stanley Petropolis, who served in World War II and were killed in action. Lowell served in the U.S. Marine Corps and died during the battle of Iwo Jima, a month-long conflict that killed more than 6,800 Americans. Petropolis was one of 19,000 American soldiers killed in the Battle of the Bulge, an attack by Germany on France, Belgium and Luxembourg late in World War II. Mattice, a First Lieutenant in the U.S. Army, died shortly after Japan announced it would surrender, flying transport in the Philippines when he lost power to both engines.

In 2008, a memorial was built on campus to honor Lowell and fellow teammates from the 1942 football team who served in World War II. The memorial was inspired by J. David Lowell, Bill Lowell's younger brother and a generous UA benefactor. Lowell donated $2.5 million in capital funding toward construction of the UA basketball/volleyball practice facility northeast of McKale Memorial Center. The memorial – which features a life-size bust of Bill Lowell – is located just west of the entrance to the Richard Jefferson Gymnasium.

David Lowell and his wife Edith later made additional contributions to the athletics department to fund construction of the Lowell-Stevens Football Facility, which is a five-story football building that houses the entire Wildcat football operation and encloses the north end of Arizona Stadium.

Conference Affiliation Notes

Arizona's first conference affiliation was with the Border Intercollegiate Athletic Conference, founded in 1931. Charter members were Arizona, Arizona State Teachers College-Flagstaff (now NAU), Arizona State Teachers College-Tempe (now ASU), New Mexico and New Mexico A&M (now New Mexico State). Subsequent additions were Texas Tech (1932-35), Texas Mines (now UTEP, 1935-61), Hardin-Simmons (1941-61) and West Texas Teachers College (now West Texas A&M, 1941-61). The league was disbanded in 1961... Arizona played as an independent in 1961, transitioning to membership in the Western Athletic Conference, which began in July 1962. Charter members were Arizona, Arizona State, Utah, New Mexico, Brigham Young and Wyoming. In 1967 UTEP and Colorado State joined. Arizona and ASU departed for the Pacific-10 Conference beginning with the 1978 football season, joining California, UCLA, USC, Stanford, Oregon, Oregon State, Washington and Washington State. Colorado and Utah accepted invitations to join the league in June 2010 and began play in the newly branded Pac-12 Conference in 2011.
